A FASHIONABLE FEAST:

Celebrating the Life of Kim "Brick Chick" Jones

From the Heavenly Kitchen of Kim "Brick Chick" Jones—affectionately known as the beloved "Mayor of Vineville"—comes this timeless recipe for a remarkable life, bringing family, friends, and communities lovingly together. The ingredients are outlined as follows:

Strong Foundation of Family & Faith: Born July 7, 1965, in Fort Valley, Georgia, to the late Alice Mosley and Billy Jones, Kim was lovingly reared by her devoted grandmothers, Eva Kate Gibson and Mary Jones.

Measure of Determination & Education: A proud graduate of Peach County High School, Kim was a member of the Class of 1983.

Love and Partnership: In 1989, Kim married the love of her life, Isaac Mitchell Jr. Together, they built a legacy of love until his passing.

Hearty Portion of Community Leadership: Kim's leadership, dedication, and tireless advocacy for community improvement earned her the title of the "Mayor of Vineville," a name she wore with pride. As the instrumental founding co-president of the Vineville Improvement Community Action Association (VICAA), she played a pivotal role in fostering positive change in her neighborhood. She was also a faithful member and missionary at The Mount Olive CME Church.

Generous Cups of Hospitality & Culinary Artistry: Kim's culinary talents were a gift that brought warmth, joy, and unity. Her meals were more than food—they were a ministry of love that bridged divides and built lasting bonds.

Abundant Style & Grace: Affectionately known as "Brick Chick," Kim's vibrant personality radiated through her bold hairstyles, stylish fashion, and radiant makeup. Her unmistakable flair left a lasting impression, bringing light wherever she went.

Endless Love for Family: Kim was a devoted mother to Keysha Knowlton, Bilan Jones, Quentin Mitchell, Xavier Jones (Abry), Sabrina Mitchell, and Damion Jones (Lay Lay). She was a cherished grandmother to Kaliyah Jones, Tayla Jones, Savannah Mitchell, and Isabel Jones. She was a treasured sister to Fredrick Gibson (Linda), Keathea Ballard, Jerry Mosley (Holly), Kerry Mosley, and Rhonda Tabor (Marcus), and a deeply loved niece to her special aunt, Dianne Brown. Kim was also a devoted aunt to Kandis Gibson and a loving cousin to India Howard and Sherika Gibson, whom she embraced as nieces.

Additionally, Kim served as a counselor, connector, and comforter to those around her, always offering a mother's touch, a listening ear, and a place at her table. She leaves to cherish her memory a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, and dear friends.

Kim was preceded in death by her husband, Isaac Mitchell Jr.; her parents, Alice Mosley and Billy Jones; and her grandparents, Eva Kate Gibson, Charlie Gibson Sr., and Mary Jones.

A Letter from Brick Chick

To my beloved family, friends, and my Vineville crew,

If you're reading this, then my earthly chapter has closed, but oh, what a story it's been! I've lived a life full of purpose, passion, laughter, love, and a few pots of something good always simmering on the stove.

Now, don't you dare weep too long for me. You know I wouldn't want that. Instead, I want you to miss me—but let me go.

When you smell a sweet fragrance that makes you pause and smile... that's me.

When you taste a dish that warms your soul or makes you say "Now who cooked this?" ... that's me.

When you pass by Vineville and feel that pride swell in your chest... that's me.

When you see a bold hairstyle, a bright lipstick, or someone walk in the room with a little extra sass and class... oh, you know that's me!

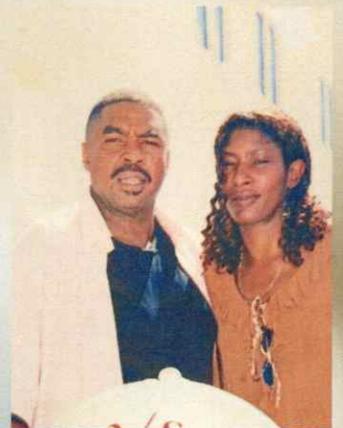

Don't sit in silence too long. Laugh out loud. Dance in your kitchen. Serve others. Love harder. Keep fighting for what's right in your community. And for goodness' sake—keep the family gatherings going and don't skimp on the seasoning.

I may have stepped into eternity, but my spirit is tucked right there in every warm memory, every shared recipe, every joyful tear.

Live boldly. Love deeply. Lead fiercely.

Until we meet again,
Your Brick Chick

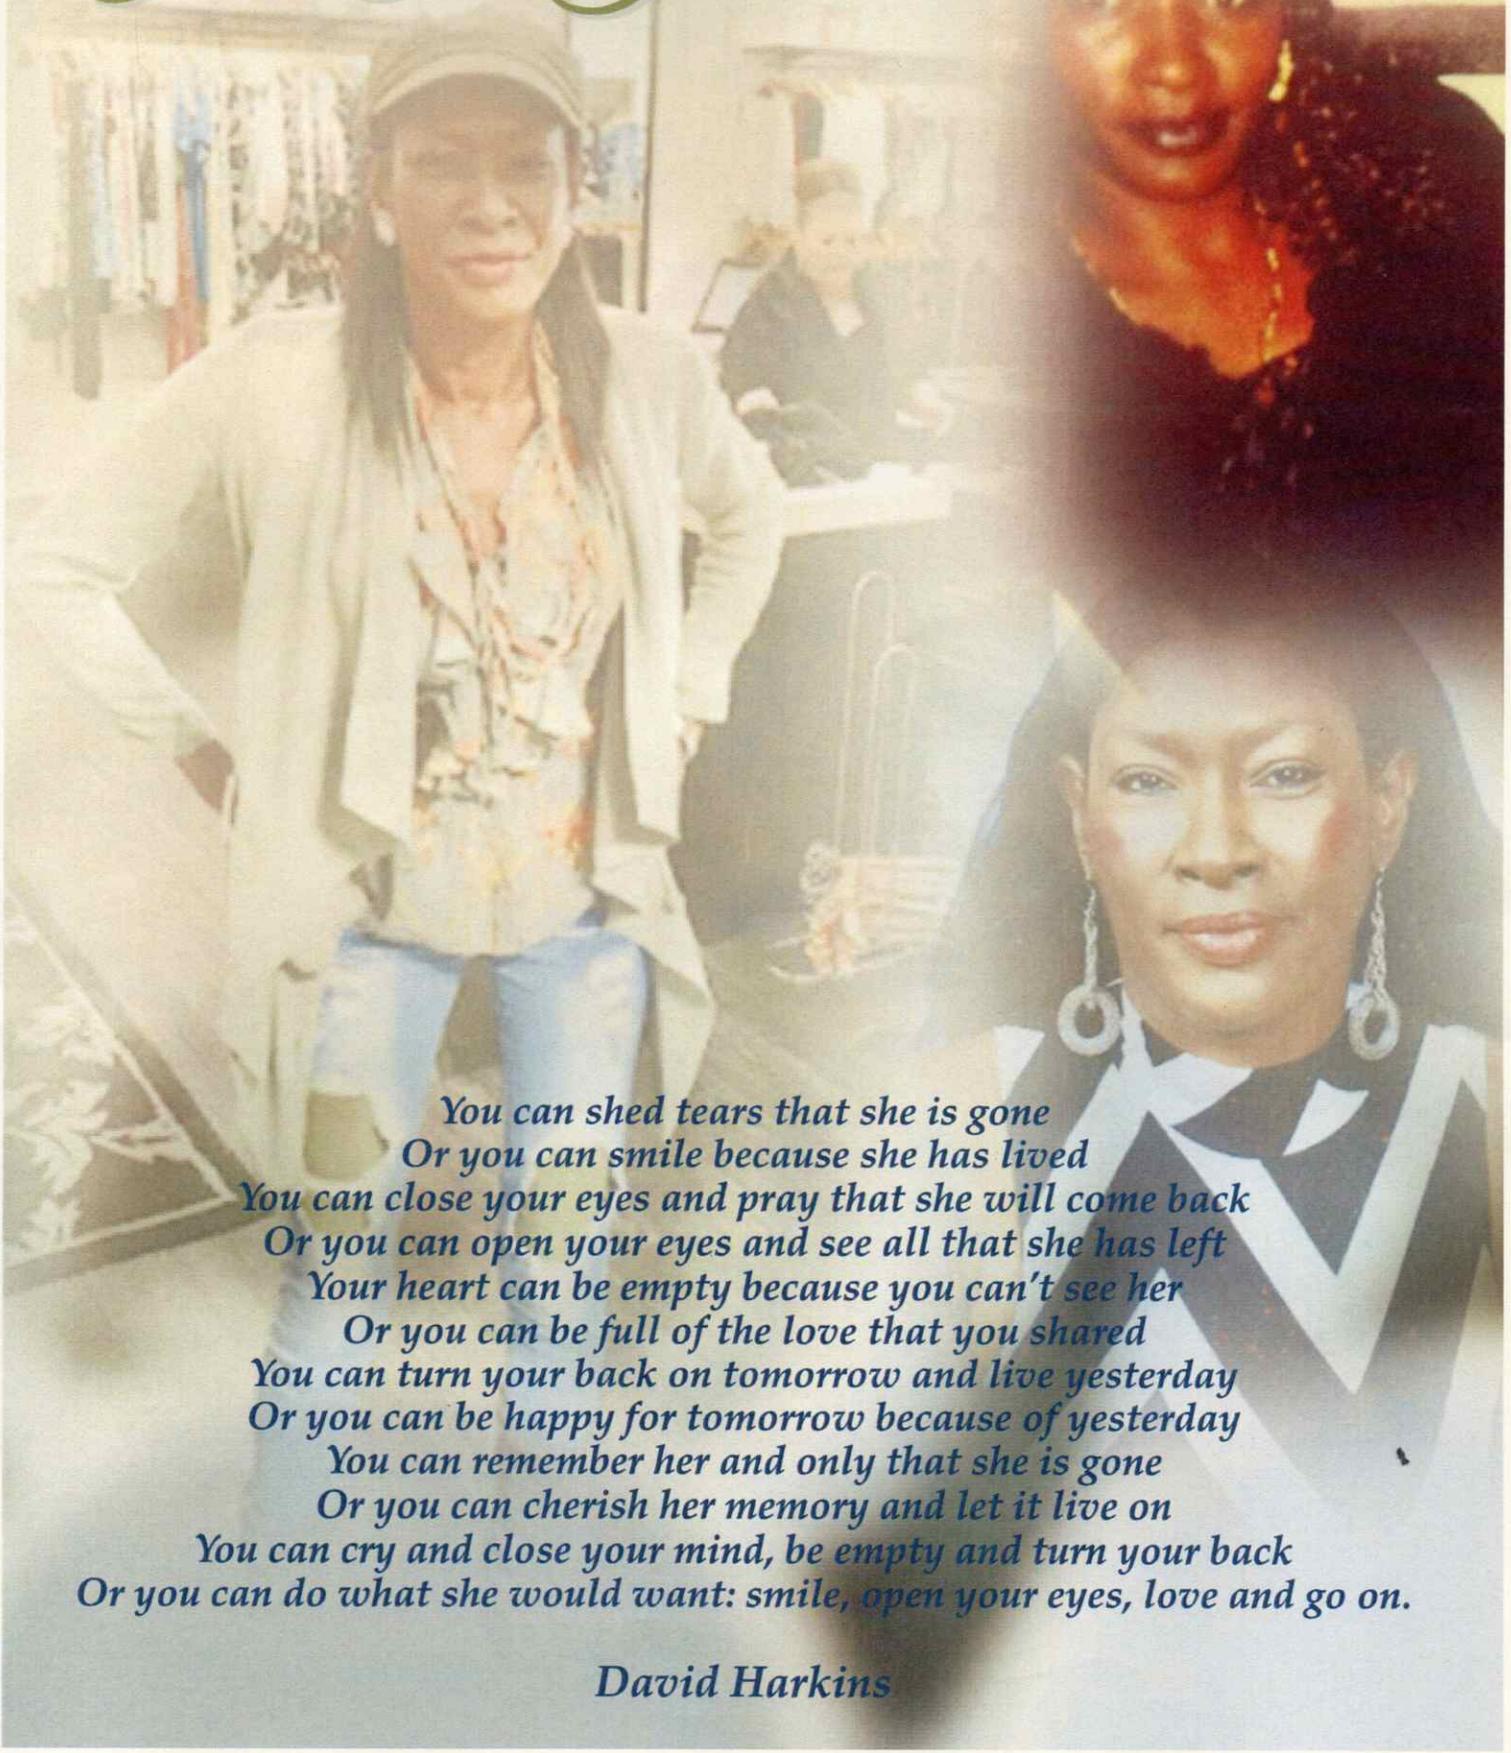

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

She Is Gone!

*You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*
