SOMEONE SPECIAL

You are too precious to be forgotten
And too priceless to ever replace.
I wish I could share
another moment with you,
And see that smiling face.
Someone so special as you
Is truly rare to find,
Someone with a heart so pure,
So caring and so kind.
I'll cherish the memories we made,
All the times we spent together,
And I'll hold them dearly in my heart
From now until forever.

Obituary

Revelation 21:4 NIV

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

Rhonda Elaine Jones was born on September 28, 1955 and grew up in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She passed away on December 8, 2025. As a child, Lou Esther Jackson, her guardian, cared for her.

She received her formal education in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System and attended Atkins High School. After graduation, she attended Winston-Salem State University. St. James AME Church is where her Christian education was further defined. There, throughout the years, she participated in many church activities and ministries. Additionally in the community, her employment included a laundress position at a Motel 6.

Admired for how she loved and cared for her family and friends, Rhonda, was known as a good-hearted person. She was welcoming and always had an open-door policy. She loved to shop whether online or in person and probably purchased many items that were blue, her favorite color.

She was preceded in death by: siblings, Wyoming Wright, Charlene Jones, James Jones, Donald Jones, Charles Bernard Jones; longtime friends who were like sisters, Deborah Witherspoon, Emma Jones, Angela Berry, Judy Roberts, Deborah Bryant; and a host of nieces and nephews.
