When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, I will not be here to see,
That the sun will rise and find your eyes; filled with tears for me,
But please know you're always in my heart, and I will forever love you,
And know, each time you think of me, I will be missing you too.

When tomorrow starts without me, I need you to understand,
That an angel came, he called my name and took me by the hand.
He told me it was time to go up to heaven far above,
And that I have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

When tomorrow starts without me, I know that you will cry,
For all my life I'd always thought that I would never die.
I had so much life ahead of me; I had so much to do,
It seems almost impossible that I was leaving you.

When tomorrow starts without me, I think of the good days, and the bad,
I thought of all our fights, next to all the fun we had.
If I could have stayed, just for a little while,
I would say I'd always be here, and then I'd make you smile.

When tomorrow starts without me, I'll realize that this could never be,
As all that would be left of me, is frozen in memories.
Then I thought of all the beautiful things that I would miss tomorrow,
I thought of you and when I did my heart was filled with sorrow.

When tomorrow starts without me I see everything He promised me,
"Today your life on earth is past, and now you can be free."
"I promise no tomorrow as today will always last,
And since it's all the same you will not be longing for the past."

So when tomorrow starts without me don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me I'm right here in your heart.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

His Story

Charles Edward Jackson entered this world in 1941 on July 23rd to Marie Jackson-Morrison. He was born in Hickory, North Carolina then eventually moved to Philadelphia with his mother and 3 siblings where he created a family of his own.

Through his many struggles he managed to accomplish a very successful career in many fields including his 30+ year stretch at the Covenant House Medical Center. Beyond his professional accomplishments, Charles was a very devoted family man. He met his wife Priscilla Butler and had his daughter Tahja Jackson. He was a devoted husband and very attentive father to not only Tahja though to his step children that he loved raised and cared for as his own.

Charles was a very loyal friend to many. Although he was stern at times and stubborn most times, you couldn't help but love his leadership and the way he loved and protected his family. Charles was very independent and very rarely liked to tell people his moves. He was very spontaneous as he would randomly come home and want to take his children to random fun places. He always made sure his family had the best of everything. The living room would look like a toy store for Christmas. Once his children got older he spoiled his grand kids the same.

In his free time, Charles loved to spend time with his grandkids, watch movies and listen to music on his endless electronics he would order. He would always buy something new to watch movies and listen to music on. He loved to shop. Charles was known as the "fly guy" as he would wear his famous Kangol hats, nice shoes and always dressed to impress. He also enjoyed spending time at the Casino.

Charles sadly gained his wings on June 7th, 2024. He was 82 years old Charles is survived by his wife, Priscilla Butler; his beloved children, his daughter, Tahja Jackson, and his step-children, Nate Allen Denishia Charne and Tyrell that he raised and loved as own; his long time girlfriend, Charlene; his grandchildren, his niece, Aisha Fairfax; his aunt, Mozelle as well as numerous nephews, cousins and his Covenant House family. Charles will be dearly missed though his legacy will live though his children and grandchildren.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
