High Flight

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth,
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds...and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of... wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there.
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long, delirious burning blue
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, nor even eagle flew
And while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out of my hand, and touched the face of God

On a Fighter Pilots Passing

Bold, brave and daring
Born to win, not to lose
To speed, not to cruise
They pursued a life
That meeker souls
Would never choose
So, let us raise a rousing cheer
For those that knew
The face of fear
Flew boldly in, thrilled with the ride
And soar still on the other side

In Loving Memory of

Thales Alfred Derrick
