Acknowledgments

The family of Jessie "Peewee" Burns, Jr. would like to express our sincere appreciation and special thanks to Genesis Cancer Center, Dr. Muldoon, CARTI of Little Rock, Dr. Sims, CHI St. Vincent Radiology Oncology, and Life Touch Hospice (Arkansas Hospice) for the care, compassion and support shown to Jessie and our family throughout his journey.

To everyone who called, visited, prayed, sent words of encouragement, provided a helping hand, or simply showed love during our time of bereavement, thank you. No act of kindness has gone unnoticed.

Words cannot fully express our gratitude for the love you have shown our family. Our prayer is that God will continue to richly bless each and every one of you.

The Life and Legacy of Jessie Burns, Jr.

Jessie Burns, Jr., 51, of Hot Springs, AR, transitioned on Saturday, September 19, 2026. He was born on March 30, 1975, to the late Jessie Burns, Sr. and Delores Thomas.

Affectionately known to his family and friends as "Peewee," Jessie lived his life to the fullest and cherished every moment spent with his family. He had a natural sense of humor and a special way of bringing laughter to those around him, often when he wasn't even trying. His personality, laughter, and love for his family will remain treasured memories for all who knew and loved him.

Jessie will be lovingly remembered by his two sons, Terran Scott and Jeremiah Moore; two granddaughters, Alicyia Scott and Ta' riah Scott; and one grandson, Christopher Stewart (My Grandson "Man-Man"), all of Hot Springs, Arkansas.

He also leaves to cherish his memory his brother, Napoleon (Beth) Thomas; sisters, Tina Cleveland, Jeremy Burns, Tremekia (Marlon) Briggs, LaShika Richmond, Santanna (Tony) Ware, and Kila (James) Junior; and bonus sisters, Willa Steward, Vivian (Rodney) Williams, Sondra (Doug) Thomas, and Regena (David) Stewart.

Jessie will also be lovingly remembered by his aunts, Willie Mae Foxworth, Arma J. Riddley, Gladys Jones, Linda Taylor, Dorothy Singleton, Eular Foster, Birdie (Joe) Sorrell, and Florence Davis; uncles, Michael Early and Randy (Tina) Early; special cousins, Andrey Jones and Susan (Anthony) Smith; a special niece, Anaya Reed; and his best friends, Corey Blevins and Sullivan Motley. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and friends who will forever cherish his memory.
