

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in Heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for me,

Place them in my mother's arms and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love and miss her and when she turns to smile,

Place a kiss upon her cheek and hold it for a while.

Because remembering her is easy, I do it everyday

But there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.

In loving memory of my mother,

Shamonique

The family wishes to express their sincere appreciation for the many prayers, acts of kindness, and love shown during the illness and death of their loved one.

Vivian E. Brown aka "CITY V"

Vivian E. Brown, 59, daughter of the late Rose Mae Johnson and Rodney Jones, was born on October 06, 1959 in Orangeburg, New York. She departed this life at her home in East Orange, NJ on March 16, 2019.

She was a lifelong resident of Asbury Park, NJ, before moving to Newark in 2011. It was here in Asbury Park, where she met and married her late husband Johnathan Brown in 1981. She was also employed here at the daycare center Head Start (ICCC) as a teacher's aide. Vivian was known to many as "City V". She was known for bringing laughter to all that encountered her. She had an infectious energy that could bring a smile to others on their worst day. She was a very passionate and unique person, whose spirit will continue to be felt by all who were blessed enough to know her. She was predeceased by her husband, Johnathan Brown, her only sister Kathy Agostini, her grandmother Rose Johnson, and her nephews Ryekill Agostini and Rahju T. Love.

She leaves to mourn two loving children, TyWand R. Johnson (Nicola Sommerville), Shamonique Brown, two stepsons Tyrone Taylor and Edward Taylor, her aunt Catherine Hill, her uncle Lee Johnson, her seven grandchildren: Shamirra Brown, Nariyah Nicholson, Lanaya Walker, Destiny Johnson, Devin Johnson, Salicia Paige, and Nicolette Bondswell. Her two nephews Terrale Agostini, and Rakim Love. Two Godsons Anthony Fraser, Ibn Gerald, one Goddaughter Shakirah Williams, adopted sister LaSeana Scurry. Lifelong friend Dorothy Brown Lee, as well as a host of loving family and friends.
