LIFE REFLECTIONS

Luis Angel Ferrer Zapata was born in Cabo Rojo, Puerto Rico. He was the only son of Luis Angel Ferrer and Mercedes Zapata. He spent his early years in Puerto Rico and later in New York.

After marrying his wife Ana, they made their home in New York and raised three sons: Jose, Melvin, and Luis Jr.

Luis worked many jobs throughout his life. He was a chauffeur, truck driver, and entrepreneur. He enjoyed watching old movies, especially westerns. He also loved his coffee every day and spending time with his family.

He was preceded in death by his wife Ana and his youngest son, Luis Angel.

He is survived by his sons Jose (Barbara) and Melvin (Michelle), and his daughter-in-law Vasilia Ferrer. His grandchildren are Anna, Christian, Jose, Kaitlin, and Demetrios. His great-grandchildren are Emily, Evan, Zara, and Alice.

He will be deeply missed and forever remembered in our hearts.

ALWAYS NEAR

Your journey here is finished now,
your rest has finally come.

But every memory that we hold
will keep your spirit close to us.

We carry you within our hearts,
in every day we face.

Your love will live on quietly
in time, in thought, in grace.
