

Obituary

Gloria Ann Jones was born February 18, 1960 to the late Willibow and Rosetta Stewart. She was born on Big Twist Plantation in Yazoo County, Mississippi. She had seven siblings, three of which preceded her in death, Pearl Lee Stewart, Mary Sanders and John Stewart. She received her education at Humphreys County Schools. While in high school she began dating her future husband, James Jones. They devoted their love to one another on April 16, 1988, a marriage that spanned over 34 years.

Gloria began studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses in the late 1980's. After studying for a while she knew it was the truth and dedicated her life to Jehovah by means of a water baptism on December 2, 1990 in Memphis, Tennessee.

Gloria loved to talk, some said she had the gift of gab. No one was a stranger to her. She used that ability in her field ministry where she shared cherished Bible truths. She loved the field ministry. She enjoyed it so much that she was moved to spend more time in the ministry and become a regular pioneer.

Gloria enjoyed being a homemaker where she tirelessly cared for her family. She willingly showed loving care to her husband, children and grandchildren. She even extended herself to extended family and friends in many practical ways, like visiting them, cooking for them, taking care of household chores, taking them to the doctor, or combing and styling their hair.

Gloria didn't like to travel far outside of Yazoo City, Mississippi. But there were times when she would put those reservations to the side especially when it came to her conventions and assemblies of Jehovah's Witnesses. Other times she stepped outside her travel zone was when she was getting her beloved sandwich from Schlotzsky's or yogurt from Menchie's Frozen Yogurt. She didn't mind traveling to find a fishing hole either because she loved to fish.

Riding bikes, exercising, reading, and solving jigsaw puzzles were some of her other favorite pastimes. She even liked growing vegetable gardens.

Gloria fell asleep in death on November 23, 2022 at St. Dominic Hospital in Jackson, Mississippi, among family and friends. Before passing away she was a loyal wife to her husband, James Jones, a loving mother to Kissey Stewart Golden (Oba), James Maurice Stewart (Tori), Kaywanga Sibley (Cornez), Marvin Stewart, Monique Stewart, a caring grandmother to Jamarion Stewart, Danterrious Almo, Daniel Stewart, Kimora Golden, Maniya Brekenridge, Keylan Breakenridge, and Kayson Beakenridge, a sister to Wille Bee Brown, Rosie Stewart, David Lee Stewart, and Dorothy Newman; an aunt to many nieces and nephews and a dear friend to many. She will be dearly missed.

Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of her
Will always bring a smile
If only I could have her back
For just a little while.
Then we could sit and talk again.
She always meant so very much to us
And always will too.
The fact that she's no longer here
Will always cause us pain.
But she's forever in our hearts.
Until we meet again.

To Our Sister

She didn't have time to say goodbye or see you later.
Before we knew it she was gone. A part of us will be so empty.
Where do we go from here? We will miss her, our dear sister.
Her memories we will treasure dearly as the tears of our eyes still flow.
We will cherish all the long nights that we sat and did puzzles together.
Sitting in the yard having long conversations
Eating her cooking and the long walks we did together
We don't want to forget how she always did our hair with a smile on her face.
When she finished she would always say:
"I did that, YOU LOOK PRETTY!"
I hope we have the chance to see her face again or to hear her voice again. Just like we did before.
One day soon we all will be relieved from all of this pain.
When that day comes, we will run to her with open arms.
And we will meet again.

Order of Service

- Chairman.....Brother Stewart Spencer
- Song 134 "See Yourself When All Is New"
- Prayer.....Brother Stewart Spencer
- Reading of the Obituary.....Brother Birchel Washington
- Discourse.....Brother William Perry
- Song 151....."He Will Call"
- Closing PrayerBrother William Perry
- Announcement.....Brother Stewart Spencer

Precious Memories

The Family would like to thank everyone for their support during this difficult time.

In Loving Memory

Gloria Ann Jones

February 18, 1960 - November 23, 2022

Memorial Service
 December 3, 2022 at One o'clock
 Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses
 Yazoo City, Mississippi