

Precious Memories

Floral Bearers
Family and Friends

Pall Bearer
Cousins

Repast
New Life Center

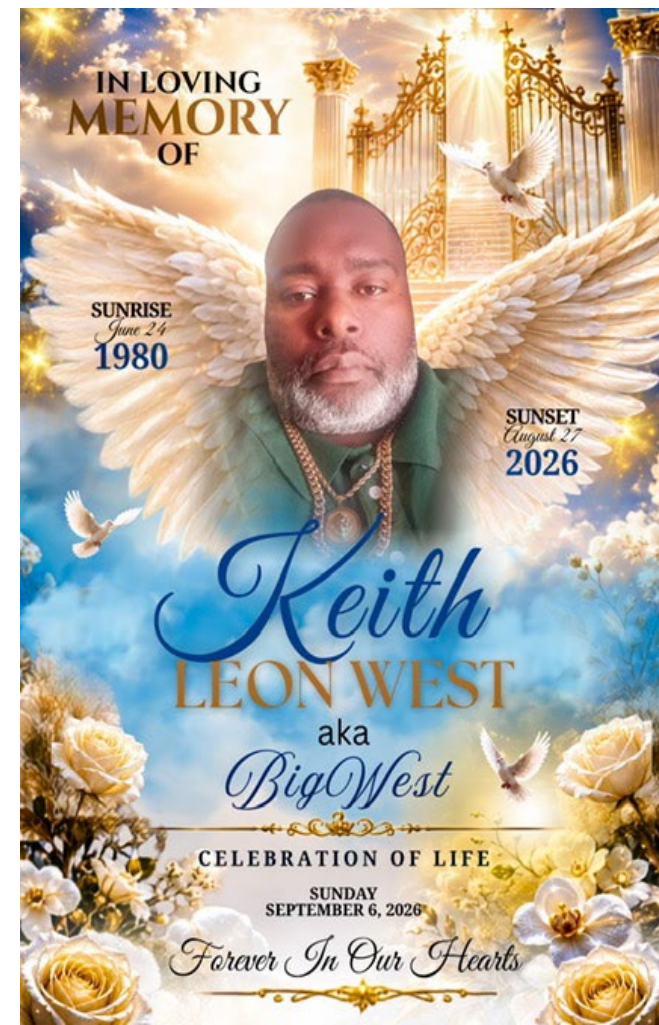

Interment
New Life Cemetery

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Turner, West and Billingsley families are very appreciative of the many expressions of love and kindness shown to this family.

Richmond County Haven Hospice, Inc.,
Presiding Elder and Lady Quanda
Anderson, and the entire Rockingham
District.

Service Entrusted to:
Leavitt Funeral Home
2036 Morven Road
Wadesboro, NC

2:00 PM

Leavitt Funeral Services Chapel
2036 Morven Road, Wadesboro, NC
Rev. Dr. Bernice Bennett, Officiant
Pastor, Harris Chapel AME Zion Church
Rev. Carol Turner, Eulogist
Pastor, Sneed Grove AME Zion Church

Order of Service

PresidingRev. Dr. Bernice Bennett

Family Processional ...Clergy and Family

SelectionRockingham District Choir

Old TestamentRev. Dr. Paulette Wall

New Testament ..Elder Charles Billingsley

Prayer of Comfort Pastor Dr. Betty Tillman

SoloBishop Jamison Quick

Acknowledgements.....Ken Caudler,
Leavitt Funeral Services

Video Tribute
"In Loving Memory"

Greetings
Rev. Dr. Haven O. Anderson, Presiding
Elder, Rockingham District

SoloOverseer Sylvia McLendon
EulogyRev. Carol Turner, Pastor
Sneed Grove A.M.E. Zion Church

Solo.....Samantha West
Parting View
Committal
Benediction
Recessional

In Loving Memory of Keith Leon West

"We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." 2 Corinthians 5:8

Keith was born on June 24, 1980, to Elder Charles Billingsley and Rev. Carol Turner. He departed this life on August 27, 2026, at Richmond County Hospice.

Keith was deeply loved by many and will be missed by all who knew him. He called several places home throughout his life, but his family was always the apple of his eye. To his Atlanta, Georgia family, he was known as Bam Bam; to his North Carolina Charlotte family, especially his uncle Bo, he was known as Snack and Big West; his mother and the Morven Family called him Keith.

He also leaves behind many friends whom he loved and cherished.

Keith confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized by Bishop Richard Barnes in Atlanta, Georgia. He enjoyed sports and music. His favorite gospel song was "I won't complain."

Keith was preceded in death by his grandparents, Louise West and Mary Billingsley, and his brother Timothy Short.

Keith leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Rev. Carol Turner (David) of Morven, NC; his father, Elder Charles E. Billingsley, II

(Missionary Arlene S. Billingsley) of Atlanta, GA; Zyion West (nephew, whom he loved as a son he never had); and Chi Tim Short (God-daughter). He leaves his beloved Sisters: Ashley Murray (Reco), Joy M. Billingsley, and Faith S. Billingsley of Atlanta, GA; and Connie Sue Hurb of PA. He leaves two God Sisters, Kiara Wilson and Leslie Sullivan (John) of Charlotte, NC. He leaves two brothers, Justin Turner (Loreal) of Morven, NC, and Albert E. Barnes (Tish) of Atlanta, GA. He leaves two God Brothers, Bryant Barringer (Peaches) of Greensboro, NC, and Ronnie Barringer of Wadesboro, NC. He leaves seven aunts: Evangelist Henrietta Barringer of Wadesboro, NC; Rev. Gina Sweetheart; Kesha Billingsley; Myoski Billingsley; Trinderlyn Billingsley, all of Atlanta, GA; Teresa Biggers (David); and Phyllis Goodwin of Wadesboro, NC. He leaves three uncles, David West (Marilyn) of Charlotte, NC; Kenny West (Eula); and James West (Samantha) of Lilesville, NC.

His extended family includes Patricia Ratliff (David) Chummy, Poochie, Tristen, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. A special friend, Charles Perkins, known as "J" of Charlotte, NC.