A Celebration Honoring

Reginald
LAMAR
FAIR

DECEMBER 9, 1952 - DECEMBER 8, 2025

LIFE'S JOURNEY

Reginald Lamar Fair, affectionately known as “Reggie,” was born on December 9, 1952, in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. He was loved by his parents, Jethro “Jeff” Fair and Bernice Maddrie, as well as his cherished bonus mother, Thelma Fair, all of whom he has now joined in eternal peace.

A proud Veteran of the United States Air Force during the Vietnam era, Reggie embodied the spirit of service and dedication. After his time in the military, he ventured into a diverse career marked by construction, asphalt work, skilled carpentry, home improvement projects, and mechanics. His hands crafted not just structures but memories, and his passion for creating was matched only by his love for gathering family and friends.

For over 29 wonderful years, Reggie shared a beautiful journey with his beloved companion, Kathy Hall. Their union was a testament to love and loyalty.

Reggie was a master of the grill, known for his barbecues and community cookouts that brought everyone together. His outgoing nature was epitomized by his hearty laughter and generous heart—traits that endeared him to many. Family will forever remember his early morning phone calls, where he would jovially say, “Nothing comes to a sleeper but a dream.” His deep voice and fun loving spirit will echo in the memories shared by those fortunate enough to know him.

On December 8, 2025, just a night before celebrating another year of life, Reggie was called home to be with the Lord, leaving a profound impact on the hearts of those he loved. He is survived by his treasured daughter Tara (Gerald), and cherished grandson Austin. Reggie leaves behind his loving siblings, Cheryl, Felecia, Jeffery (Clifton), Angela (Reggie), Carolyn (Warren), and Raymond. He was welcomed in death by his sisters Valerie, Regina, Sheila, and Gwen. Additionally, he leaves a legacy of love in a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. His BIG heart, one of a kind sense of humor, and strong candid, yet loving personality will always be remembered.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
