

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Numbers 6: 24-26

The LORD bless thee, and keep thee: The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

Obituary

Gertrude Bolden was born in Maysville, KY on May 20, 1934, to Charles Matthew Ewing, Sr. and Viola Perry Ewing. She entered into eternal rest on October 1, 2024, at the age of 90.

Gertrude attended Maysville John G. Fee High School and she was the valedictorian of her graduating class. In 1956, she united in holy matrimony to the late Marvin K. Bolden and relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio; to this union, two daughters were born, Teresa and Anita Bolden. They were happily married for 46 years.

Gertrude attended Bethel Baptist Church and Oakley Baptist Church prior to joining New Life Temple Church in 1983. She attended all foundational training classes; Catechism I, II, III (now known as Solid Rock Training), Hearing the Master's Voice, Holy Spirit training class, Leadership Training classes I & II, and various other classes throughout the years. Gertrude became a Catechism Counselor in 1986 and taught various Sunday school classes. She also served as a Care Group Leader for many years. She was a faithful prayer intercessor and joined the Prayer Ministry in 1983. Gertrude was appointed as the Prayer Ministry Leader in 2007, where she continued to serve until her departure. As a prayer intercessor, she was faithful in praying for the vision the Lord gave to New Life Temple Church; she was a "watchman on the wall".

Isaiah 62:6-7 MSG ...I've posted watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem. Day and night they keep at it, praying, calling out, reminding God to remember. They are to give Him no peace, until He does what He said,...

Gertrude, affectionately known as "MaMaw" and "Ma Gert," was loved and cherished by many. She was known for her unwavering faith and trust in God, as well as her generous spirit.

Gertrude enjoyed spending time with family and friends, relaxing with music, shopping, and reading the Bible. She especially enjoyed taking long drives and enjoying the scenery, God's creation.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Viola Ewing; her husband Marvin K. Bolden; her sisters, Ella Cross, Anna Tinsley, Myrtle Bolden, Emma Boulden; two brothers, Charles Ewing, Jr. and George Ewing; and son-in-law Donald Clark.

Gertrude leaves to cherish her memories; daughters Teresa Bolden Clark and Anita Bolden; grandchildren Gary Clark, Chelsea Clark, and Kimya Sims (Richard); five great-grandchildren, 1 great-great-grandchild, a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, friends, and all who had the privilege of meeting her.
