

My Brother, My Best Friend, My Angel

For Sheriyah and Aaliyah, in loving memory of Karsyn

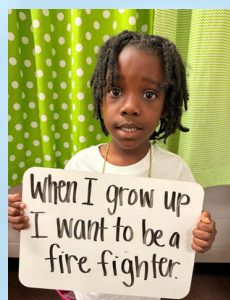

My brother, my best friend, I never thought our time would end. You were my partner, my buddy, my friend, I thought we would be together until the very end. Sheriyah, remember all the things we would do, the laughter, the games, and the moments we knew. You were my best friend, and I was yours too, no matter where I am, I'll always be with you. And Aaliyah, my little princess, so sweet, Every time I saw you, my love was complete. I'd give you a kiss and hold you tight, just like I promised, I'd protect you with all my might. Please don't be sad when you think of me, look toward the sky and that's where I'll be. I'm no longer hurting, I'm finally free. But all of my love will stay with you endlessly. When you laugh, I'll be there in the sound. When you need me, I'll be all around. In every memory, in every smile, I'll be watching over you all the while. I may not be there to play or hold your hand, but I'll be your angel in God's promised land. And though you can't see me, please always know, the love that I gave you will never let go. So Sheriyah and Aaliyah, don't ever forget, your brother's love is the greatest gift yet. Keep me in your hearts wherever you go, and remember the little boy who loved you so. Until we meet again, my sisters, be strong. Keep loving each other and carry me along. I'll be your guardian, your angel above.

Forever your brother, forever your love.

"I may have lost my battle, but I will never lose my place in your hearts."

Love always, Karsyn

CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Karsyn
ANTONIO CHATMAN

Obituary

Karsyn Antonio Chatman, a bright, loving, and joyful little boy whose life touched everyone blessed to know him.

Karsyn was born on March 20, 2020, and lived in Sumter, South Carolina with his loving mother, Carolyn Sheresa China, his father, Antonio Cortez Chatman, his sisters, Aaliyah and Sheriyah Chatman, and his maternal grandmother, Mary Lou China.

Karsyn attended Millwood Elementary School, where he was known as a very bright little guy. he had a beautiful personality and brought love and happiness to his family. Karsyn and his sister Sheriyah shared a special bond. They were best friends and did everything together. Their friendship was a precious part of his life and a memory that will forever remain in the hearts of those who witnessed their love for one another.

Karsyn was especially protective of his youngest sister, Aaliyah. One of the sweetest memories his family will always cherish is the way he would greet her with a gentle forehead kiss. That simple act showed the love, tenderness, and protective spirit he carried in his young heart.

In his free time, Karsyn enjoyed playing Roblox, riding his motorbike, and spending weekends with his PaPa Ricky. He loved having fun, being adventurous, and enjoying the simple things that brought him happiness. Though his time on earth was far too short, the love he gave and the memories he created will last a lifetime.

Karsyn was preceded in death by his maternal great-grandparents, Purcell Stephens, Lawson China Sr., and Doretha Jackson China, and his paternal great-grandparents, Eddie Lee Cooley and Ella Mae June.

Karsyn leaves to cherish his beautiful memories his siblings, Antanae Chatman, Cortez Chatman, Arrianah Chatman, and Shyleek Chambers all of South Carolina; Caleb Brown of North Carolina, and Jayceon Washington of Colorado; his maternal grandfather, Jerome Ricky (Deanna) China of SC; maternal grandmother, Mary China of SC, paternal grandparents, Sharon Chatman and Robert Chatman of SC, maternal great-grandmother, Ida Mae Stephens; five aunts, Adriaanne China, Samantha Benjamin, NajanChatman, and Moesha Chatman all of SC, two uncles, Antwan Chatman and Jerome Vaughn of SC; along wiht a host of cousins, great-aunts, great-uncles, extended family members and loving friends.

Although Karsyn’s life was brief, his presence was a gift. His bright smile, loving heart, playful spirit, protective nature, and the special bond he shared with his sisters will never be fortotthe.

Rest peacefully, sweet Karsyn.

You will forever be loved, forever remembered, and forever missed
