Brother

You gave no one a last farewell, nor ever said good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why,
A million times we will miss you. A million times we well cry,
If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,no one else can fill,
It broke our hearts to lose you,but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with youm, the day God took you home.
We will meet again someday I know in better place,
I thank God He made you our brother
While you were here on earth.

My Son

Oh I wish I could keep you, son of mine,right by my side all the time.
I want to keep you from the storms of life, from the world's pain and strife.
But I know someday I'll have to let go; It's the hardest thing I know.
But God's plan for you is great, you'll see -
For His opportunity is one I would never be able to give.
It is to have you live out a life filled with His grace and mercy,
Gifts you couldn't get from me.
You & God have to venture out together, holding hands forever,
For you are not only a son of mine,but God's son all the time.

Acknowledgement

During the time of our deepest grief, our family, friends, and acquaintances came to lend their help and condolences. Their thoughts and prayers in an effort to soothe and comfort our grieving hearts caught us off guard. The touching cards and letters all expressing their deepest sympathy are helping us, the mourners, by reminding us that we are not alone in the grief process and that we can find peace in others. May God continue to bless and keep each of you in His loving care, is our prayer.

Dear Dad,

They told me you're in heaven now with my mother. I wish I could come visit. Everyone had been stopping by and telling me how much I look like you. They tell me you'll always be here even if I can t see you. How am I supposed to hug and talk to you if I can't see you? They say I will see you again one day, but please don't take too long. Nana misses you. She told me so herself. She cries, but I'm there to wipe her tears away. But I gotta go. We're running outside to play. Love you!

P. S. Don't take too long
Love, Demi
