

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Gloria Jean Berry, the beloved mother to Vickie Berry Cobbina (61) of Columbus, Ohio, passed away at her home on May 26, 2024, leaving a void in her daughter's and long-term companion, Roosevelt Yates', hearts that only the peace that surpasses all understanding may one day fill.

Gloria was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1945 to Henry Fagan and Bernice Fagan (Lee). She attended Hays Elementary, Porter Jr. High, and later studied at Taft High School.

Gloria was a devoted mother to Vickie, who was her pride, joy, and travel companion. Gloria was always ready to join her daughter on amazing and daring adventures. She felt loved and supported by her family and many friends.

Gloria took special joy in encouraging Vickie and Roosevelt in their educational pursuits. She had fond memories of many nieces, nephews, and friends as they achieved great milestones. Gloria was well-loved by neighbors in the OTR.

Gloria was preceded in death by her father, Henry; mother, Bernice; brother, Clifford; sister, Delois; brother, Henry Jr.; sister, Deborah; and husband, Joseph Berry. She is survived by her sisters, Lottie and Joyce Ann, who will never forget the love she brought into their lives.

Fill not your heart with PAIN AND SORROW,
 But remember me in every tomorrow...
 Remember the JOY,
 the LAUGHTER,
 the smiles,
 I've only gone to rest a little while.
 Although my leaving causes pain & grief
 My going has eased my hurt
 And given me relief.
 So dry your eyes and remember me,
 Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
 Because I will REMEMBER YOU ALL
 And look on with a smile.
 Understand in your hearts
 I've only gone to rest a little while
