

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way—
I found that peace at close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss—
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief—
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

OBITUARY

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.”

-Matthew 11:28

Nancy Raynor Anderson passed through her earthly life into the loving arms of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Saturday, June 7, 2025. Nancy was born on May 1, 1950, in the Ingram township of Smithfield, North Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Aaron Patrick and Eva Allen Raynor. She was preceded in death by her siblings Marie Raynor, Doris Langdon, George Raynor, and Mary “Christine” Vick.

Nancy is survived by her children Billy “Ray” Anderson Jr., Michael Anderson, Cathy Hill and husband Kevin; grandchildren Tabitha Callon, Billy Ray Anderson III, Heven Anderson, Missy Bryan, Airelle Conner, Jonathan Anderson, Jordan Hill, and Silas Hill; former spouse Billy Anderson Sr.; siblings Kathryn Ray, Edward Raynor and wife Genny; and many beloved nieces and nephews.

Throughout her life, Nancy enjoyed quilting, making ceramics, porcelain dolls, and cooking. Nancy was known as the family historian, researching and sharing the ancestry for all to enjoy. She loved her family dearly, but most importantly, she loved the Lord. Nancy was a dedicated volunteer at her home church, Smyrna Original Free Will Baptist, as a Sunday school teacher. Nancy is now with her Heavenly Father, and we look forward to seeing her once again.
