

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.
 Heaven is my home now,
 and this is where I'll stay.
 Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.
 I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.
 Don't cry for me.
 It was just my time, but I will see you someday on the other side.
 Don't cry for me.
 I am not alone.
 The angels are with me to welcome me home.
 Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.
 All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.
 Don't cry for me.
 This is not the end.
 I'll be waiting here for you
 when we meet again.

A beautiful spirit
endures
 Through many transformations
 A perseverance of the soul
 The colors of our lives do not fade
 But grow brighter with every changing season

Obituary

Marcia Celeste Clark was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on February 1, 1989. A dedicated friend and sister, Marcia grew up in Cincinnati and graduated from Woodward High School.

She pursued a career in hospitality, where her warm and caring nature made her a beloved colleague and professional. Marcia deeply loved travel and cherished spending time with her friends. She touched the lives of many with her kindness, humor, and loving spirit, leaving behind a legacy of joy and friendship.

She is survived by her parents, Andrea M. Clark and John G. Trimble Jr. Her beloved grandmother, Betty J. Trimble. Her siblings are John Trimble III, Jasmine Fountain, Stevie Clark, Saxon Watts, Takeyia Miller, and Kayla Allen-Brown.

She will be deeply missed by her extended family, including her aunts, uncles, cousins, and many close friends who she considers family. Her family would also like to thank the Cross Family for their unwavering support of Marcia.

Marcia was known for her infectious sense of humor and ability to make anyone laugh, no matter the situation. Her quick wit and playful spirit brought joy to those around her. Beyond her humor, Marcia was profoundly caring and always willing to lend a helping hand. Whether offering a listening ear to a friend in need or going out of her way to make others feel special, her kindness knew no bounds. Her warmth and generosity left a lasting impact on everyone she met.

I'd like the memory of me

To be a happy one,

I'd like to leave

an afterglow of smiles

when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo

Whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times

And bright & sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,

To dry before the sun

Of happy memories

that I leave behind

When life is done.
