

St John 15:1-5, 16

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that bears not fruit he takes away: and every branch that bears fruit, he purges it, that it may bring forth more fruit.....

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

I am the vine, Ye are the branches:

He that abides in Me, and I in Him,

the same brings forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen You, and ordained You, that Ye should go and bring forth lovely fruit, and that Your fruit should remain; that whatsoever Ye shall ask of the Father in my name, He may give it You.

Return, We Beseech Thee, O God Of Host:
Look Down From Heaven And Behold And

Right Hand Hath Planted
And The Branch That Thou Madest Strong

Kathy Lynn Brockman-Walker was born January 29, 1950, the fourth born daughter to the union of John and Ida (Griffin) Brockman of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Kathy joined New Community Church of God in Christ at the age of 13 and was water baptize in James Temple Church of God in Christ in 1973 by the late Bishop William Morgan James. As Kathy spiritually developed and mature, she later became a senior Sunday school teacher.

Kathy graduated from the college of Business Administration from the University of Cincinnati with a bachelor's degree in Personnel & Human Resource Management and worked at Procter and Gamble in Research and Development. She was also encouraged and sponsored by her Procter and Gamble Director to attend a month's training of organizational development in Bethel Maine and became the Affirmative Action coordinator for her Division. In January 2011 she became the First Lady of Turning Point Ministries Pentecostal Church alongside her beloved husband Elder Eddie C. Walker. Kathy implemented the Daughters of Excellence Ministry for young girls ages 5-16 years, counseled many women inside and outside the church and taught adult Sunday School.
