His Life Story

Shermaine Perry Richardson Sr., affectionately known as “Chip,” was born September 27, 1977, in Las Vegas, Nevada to Michelle Moore and Raymond Richardson Sr. Shermaine accepted Christ at a young age as a member of New Bethel Baptist Church, where he served an usher. As a student, he attended Rose Warren Elementary School, Roy Martin Middle School, and Cheyenne High School. During High School, he played basketball and football and was a member of the High Steppers and Westernettes Drill teams. After completing his education, Shermaine worked for the City of Las Vegas Parks and Recreation Division.

He was dedicated to his children, mother, grandchildren, family, and friends. Shermaine was outgoing, charismatic, and sociable; Chip left an impression on everyone he encountered and considered each person he met—regardless of their walk of life—as family.

A BROTHER'S LOVE

The bond we shared, a golden thread,
Now broken, leaves a life unsaid.
Your laughter bright, your guiding hand,
A brother's love, across the land.

Though grief may linger, tears may fall,
We'll cherish moments, one and all.
The memories we made, a precious art,
Will forever warm within my heart.

Your spirit lives, in sun and rain,
A brother's love, forever to remain.
We'll miss you dearly, until we meet,
In Heaven's peace, our souls complete.

Love your Brother,
Rude Jude

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

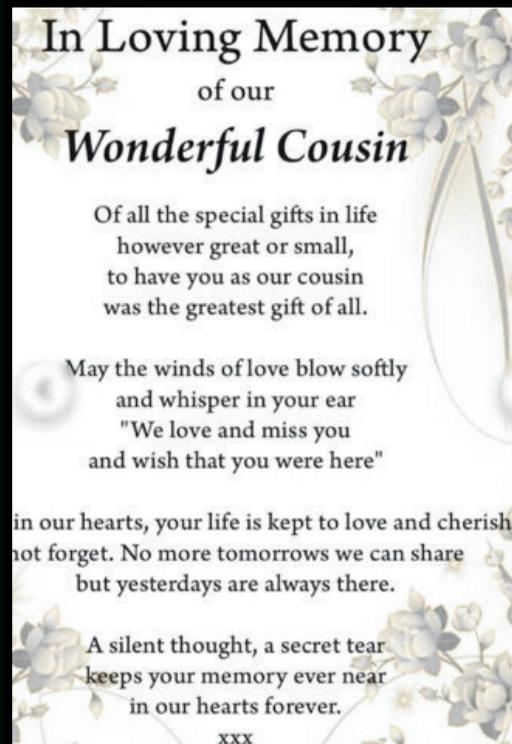

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

-Shermaine 'Chip' Richardson Sr.
