Obituary

Wayne Carlton Reid, Jr., born on December 13, 1975, in Brooklyn, New York, to Kathleen Noreiga and Wayne Carlton Reid, Sr., passed away on March 25, 2025, at the age of 49. He was the eldest of five siblings: Ishmael Awong, Samayah Woods, Shaka Woods and Seba Osborne.

Wayne, affectionately known as Qaidhar and Avion, attended the New York City Public School System, graduating from Martin Luther King High School in 1994. Throughout his life, Wayne was a devoted father to his three children: Sheyenne Reid, Avion Reid, and Kayden Miller. Wayne leaves to cherish his partner of over 20 years, Takiyah Miller.

A passionate traveler, Wayne's adventures took him to places like Trinidad and Tobago, St. Croix, Jamaica, and Australia. His love for music was equally profound; he began playing the Steel Pan at just 12 years old, joining the Band Pan Rebels for about three years, where he played the Tenor pan. A gifted artist, Wayne had an incredible ability to write music, often coming up with lyrics on the spot, no matter the beat, and was known for his lyrical flow and creative metaphors.

Wayne leaves behind a lasting legacy of love, humor, creativity, and style. He will be dearly missed by his children, parents, siblings, and a host of family and friends who will cherish his memory forever.

*With heartfelt love,
The Family.*
