THE LIFE STORY OF Florine D. Adams

Florine Adams, also known as Florine Muhammad, was born on October 25, 1941, in Kansas City, Missouri, and passed away peacefully on July 8, 2025, in her home in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Florine was the beloved daughter of Samuel P. Cowan and Johnnie Mae Robinson. She was preceded in death by her parents, her baby brother Samuel P. Cowan Jr., and her cherished grandson Justin Dell Adams/Muhammad, who returned to Allah before her.

Florine moved to Las Vegas in 1999, where she built a life rooted in love, strength, and devotion to her family. She was the proud grandmother of six grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren—loving them all “to life,” as she often said. Her love for them gave her strength and purpose. She once said, “Baby, I just want to be here for you and my family. We all we got.”

Family meant everything to Florine. She lived for them, fought for them, and stayed for them. Her unwavering love extended her time here with us, and her presence was a source of comfort and strength. Florine also cherished her work family at Craig and Pike, where she was dedicated for 26 years.

Florine returned to Allah on her terms, peacefully at home. She faced cancer with bravery, dignity, and unmatched resilience. As her family proudly declares: “We beat cancer till we knocked its brains out. We won, Queen.”

Florine’s light, love, and legacy will forever live on through her family and all who were blessed to know her.
