

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Your Majesty, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."

Pamela Sue Williams, 56, of La Monte, passed away peacefully on Friday evening, November 21, 2025, at her home, surrounded by family.

She was born May 14, 1969, in Kansas City, the daughter of Frederick McLean and Rosemary (Huff) Linthacum. On December 25, 2015, she was united in marriage to Stephen Williams.

Pam was a 1988 graduate of Lee's Summit High School. Most recently, she was an employment specialist at Compass Health. She had a special place in her heart for dogs in need and was involved with Pittie's Rescue Group.

Family was the center of Pam's world—especially her grandchildren, who were her greatest joy. She was a good storyteller, a woman with a tenderness for others, and someone who cared about her loved ones without judgment. Pam was loving, humble, strong, generous, and always ready to help the underdog. Throughout her two-year battle with cancer, she continued to give glory to Jesus, facing each day with faith and grace. She is now made whole, resting in His arms.

Surviving are her husband, Stephen, of the home; three sons, Joshua Cole Hudson of Lenexa, KS, Shane Marion Williams (Shelby) of Sedalia, and Jason Alan Hudson (Chelsie) of Holden; eleven grandchildren, Danielle Hudson, Oliver, Benjamin and Penelope Williams, Lucas and Liam Hudson, Haidyn, Emerson and Persephone Martin; other loving family members; her mother and stepfather, Rosemary and Alan Linthacum of Independence; her father and stepmother, Fred and Cynthia McLean of Peculiar; a brother, David Linthacum; and a sister, Michelle Ferraro.
