

Vicki was born on October 24, 1949, in Amarillo, Texas to C.W. and Reba (Gamblin) Tomlinson. She graduated from Tascosa High School Class of 1967 and later received her Licensed Vocational Nursing Certificate from Amarillo College. On April 4, 1974, she married the love of her life, James "Jim" Leech in Amarillo. Vicki worked for the Coffee Memorial Blood Center for 45 years. Her dedication to her career saw her rise from being a phlebotomist to retiring as Director of Collections overseeing all mobile collection and on-site collections operations. Vicki genuinely loved her job.

In her spare time and post-retirement, Vicki enjoyed learning new genres of dance, even taking belly dancing for a time with her sister Pam. Her attention to detail led to a beautifully manicured lawn that she meticulously kept, along with flowers and plants that adorned her back patio where she spent many evenings with Jim and their puppy, Mitzi. Vicki even spent time in the woodshop helping Jim create many different things. Together they traveled all over the country and world. Vicki and Jim spent time in Scotland, several trips to Canada, and they loved travelling throughout the North and Mid-West part of the country.

Vicki is preceded in death by her parents, and a brother, C.W. Tomlinson Jr. Those left to cherish her memory are her beloved husband, Jim Leech, sister, Pam Bellieu, and many friends and extended family.

In lieu of flowers, Jim and Pam have requested that you give the gift of life by donating blood or giving a donation to the Coffee Memorial Blood Center where Vicki gave so selflessly of herself for so many years, 7500 Wallace Blvd #2149, Amarillo, TX 79124.

Celebrating The Life Of

Vicki Lea Leech

October 24, 1949 ~ June 3, 2026

~Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8~

KJV

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.
