

Rest Without Pain

By Sabrina F. Manning-Prince

The day I drifted off into the deepest of sleep.
My family and friends for me, they did weep.
I want them to think of me away as a guest.
I am finally getting some peace and rest.
I am no longer sick, tired, or suffering.
Be happy for me and stop the uttering.
I am free of all my prior aches and pains,
No longer dealing with life's stress and strains.
Just know that I am resting for a little while.
Dry your tears and push through a smile.
