

To An Amazing Mother and Grandmother

God saw you getting tired and know it was time.

*So He put His arms around you and He whispered "Come to me"
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard-working hands at rest.*

*God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He chose to take the best.*

*It's lonesome here without you,
We miss you more each day.
Life doesn't seem the same,
Since you have gone away.*

*When days are sad and lonely
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper
"Cheer Up and Carry On"*

*Each time we see your picture
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's hands, we'll meet again someday!"*

PALLBEARERS

Marlon Baker
Ovante Baker
Ovane Baker

Ovaughn Baker
Russell Nelson
Paul Ingleton

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Phyllis Thompson wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude to all for your phone calls, text messages, cards, visits and all acts of kindness and support during this very difficult time.

INTERMENT

Forest Hill Cemetery
2646 E. Grace Avenue Haines City, FL 33844

REPAST

Thompson Residence
1908 Ray Place Kissimmee, FL 34759

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES ENTRUSTED TO:

"The Best Service. The Best Price."
233 9th Street Haines City, FL 33844
863-353-1511

Celebrating the Life of

Phyllis Thompson

Sunrise: August 28, 1954 - Sunset: January 10, 2025

Saturday, January 25, 2025 12:30 PM

Richard Funeral Services
233 North 9th Street Haines City, FL 33844
Eulogist, Marian Henry

Obituary

Phyllis Thompson, a cherished mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully on January 10, 2025, in Kissimmee, Florida. Born on April 28, 1954, in Portland, Jamaica, West Indies, Phyllis made a remarkable journey that led her to touch the lives of many in her community.

With a dedicated work ethic, Phyllis spent 20 years proudly serving at McDonald's before retiring from Publix after a fulfilling decade. Her commitment to her roles exemplified her dedication to service and community, values that were central to her life.

Garden enthusiast Phyllis found joy in tending to her plants, creating beautiful spaces filled with color and life. This passion was a reflection of her nurturing spirit, which she extended to her family and friends.

Phyllis is survived by her loving children: Novlette Wilson, Colette Wilson, Marlon Baker, and Tamara "Stacey" Kirkland, as well as her beloved grandchildren Shadae Baker, Sasha Mc Alphin, Tiovania "Saria" Baker, Ashleigh Mc Alphin, Ovante Baker, Ovane Baker, Ovaughn Baker, Tristan Harris, Isiah Baker, and Nala Baker. She also took great pride in her role as great-grandmother to Tyrone Morton III. Phyllis will be deeply missed by her family who carry her spirit and love forward.

In addition to her immediate family, Phyllis is survived by her beloved siblings—Lilith "Julian" Fisher, Anthony "Rocka" Thompson, Dorothy Thompson, Joseph "Buckey" Thompson, and Maxine and Stepheny Thompson. Her deep and lasting friendships with Annick Coleman and Diane Brown, who are like sisters to her, were also a treasured part of her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents, David Thompson and Jane Mitchell, and by her sister, Yvette Doyley. Though she has departed from this earth, the love she shared and the lives she touched will forever remain a testament to her spirit. She will be missed dearly, but her memories will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Order of Service

- Processional..... Clergy & Family
- Prayer..... Annick Coleman
- Solo..... Deon Doyley Watson
- Old Testament Psalm 103:8-17..... Tristan Harris
- New Testament Scripture Marian Henry
- Tribute of Reflection:
- As A Family Member Grandchildren
- Poem "As We Look Back" Tristan Harris
- Musical Selection Come Jesus Come
- Eulogy..... Marian Henry
- Acknowledgement Richard Funeral Services
- Recessional..... Clergy & Family

*Let not your heart be troubled:
 ye believe in God, believe also in me.
 In my Father's house are many mansions:
 if it were not so, I would have told you.
 I go to prepare a place for you.
 And if I go and prepare a place for you,
 I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.*

John 14: 1-3

