I Stepped Outside

*To all the loved ones I've left behind,
To all the friends that have been so kind.
I have a message I would like to share,
To comfort your hearts and ease your despair.*

*My time had come, and I could no longer abide,
In this old body, so I stepped outside.
I know you've been dealt a heart breaking blow,
But when Jesus came for me, I just had to go.*

*There He was so radiant and white,
And He took my hand for a heavenly flight.
We started to move on this glorious ride,
How peaceful it was when I stepped outside.*

*I left a body that's been scarred by it's past,
But those scars don't hurt anymore, for I'm free at last!
I'm rejoicing and singing and so much more,
There's indescribable beauty like I have never seen before.*

*When I speak of this place I beam with pride,
This haven of rest I found when I stepped out-side.
This place is so special without sorrow or tear,
And I want all my friends and loved ones to meet me here.*

*Jesus is the way to this glorious place,
Just trust in Him and His saving grace.
Now you'll bury this body and because it gave up and died,
But remember, I'm not there for I stepped outside.*
