

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Deloris Marriam Wade

Deloris “Dee” Marriam Wade, 82, of Sedalia, MO, passed away peacefully on Thursday, August 28, 2025, at her home surrounded by family.

She was born on August 9, 1943, in Sedalia, the daughter of John Robert Baldwin and Myrtle Kathryn (Otten) Baldwin, who preceded her in death.

On July 29, 1961, in Sedalia, Dee was united in marriage to the love of her life, Melvin Paul Wade, who preceded her in death on April 9, 2001.

A lifelong learner, Dee was a proud graduate of State Fair Community College, Class of 1985, earning an Associate’s Degree in Business Management. She furthered her education in the insurance field and became a licensed Missouri insurance agent. Her career included work with Old Reliable Casualty Insurance Company in St. Louis before later serving as office manager for the Salvation Army in Sedalia, where she was known for her dedication and compassion. She was also a member of Calvary Baptist Church.

Family was the center of Dee’s life. She cherished the holidays, especially Christmas, when she delighted in driving around town to admire the lights with her loved ones. She enjoyed shopping, reading her Bible, and working word search puzzles, simple joys that brought her great comfort and happiness.

Dee’s memory will be lovingly cherished by her two daughters, Karen Fleming of the home, and Kelly Mangel (John) of Sedalia; five grandchildren, Jeremy Fleming, Megan Fleming, Kelsi Wade, Michael Taylor, and Kayln Taylor; and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Khristy Clark.
