Emma Jane Patchinose was born Friday, May 19, 1978 in The Pas, Manitoba.

Emma Jane loved everybody and took care of anyone that needed help. She raised her precious baby Shanika and raised her as her own.

Emma loved to play Bingo. We all played house Bingo and poker at her house. She loved puzzles and family gatherings. Emma would put on a birthday for all her granddaughters. She also raised two of her granddaughters Heavenly and Cloe. Emma also loved to pick berries and sew and make baby blankets and star blankets. She loved to play loud music and watch TV. Emma loved decorating her house and cleaning the yard. She loved putting on makeup and showed everybody how to pick weegus (rat root). Emma loved dressing up and always had her own style, she was very creative.

Emma loved to go for long walks in the bush. She loved renovating her house and fixing it up and painting the walls. She was a woman of many talents. Her favorite karaoke song was “The Rose”. She always had smokes for all her bros or cousins if anyone ran out.
