God's Garden

God looked around his garden and He found an empty place.
And then He looked down upon the earth, and saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you, and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you. but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home

Life's Reflection

Anderson Drain Howell a.k.a. "Brother", was born February 14, 1941 in Thomaston, Georgia to George Howell, Sr. and Christine Howell. He was raised by belated Mary Birte.

His life ended March 8, 2011 at Drake Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio. Anderson attended Roger Bacon High School, later obtaining his GED before enlisting in the Air Force.

Anderson was preceded in death by his sisters, Mildred, Betty, and Dorothy; brothers, George and Russell.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: his sister, Lucille Booker; brother, Roosevelt "Sonny" Howell, and a host of nieces, nephews with the love of other relatives and dear friends.

He will be greatly missed and will be remembered by all who loved and knew him.

*If I Should Go Tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.*
