OBITUARY

In accordance with our Heavenly Father’s plan, Lillie Juanita Williams, 76 was called home on Saturday, June 20, 2026. After hearing the voice of her Father, she answered, took his hand and left it all.

Lillie was born December 6, 1949, to the late Elbert Lee Fryar and Anna Goodman Fryar. Lillie attended Hargrove High School where she graduated in 1969. She worked at Devil Dog Sewing Factory located in Newton Grove, NC and Hamilton Beach in Clinton, NC until her health slowly began to decline. Lillie loved working in her flower garden, cooking, and spending time with family and friends. Because she never met a stranger, her home became the community home and she became their mother figure as well.

Lillie is preceded in death by her daughter, Nanet Williams; granddaughter, Christian Williams; nephew, Lenwood (‘Scooter’) Fryar; son-in-law, Charles Howard, and aunt, Thelma Fryar.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her former Husband, Samuel Williams Jr. and her three children, Adriene Howard, Timtory Williams, and Amy Williams. Lillie also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
