

Forever in our hearts

Through Annie's dedication to family, sacrifices, and resilience during difficult times she helped shaped futures that made a lasting impact of her legacy which is seen in the faces of her loved ones. Her presence remains, guiding and influencing those she left behind.

In Loving Memory of Annie Hatcher Jones

August 10, 1947 – September 10, 2025

*Thursday, September 25, 2025 11:00AM
Jehovah's Witnesses Kingdom Hall
211 Humboldt Avenue
Dorchester, MA 02121*

Obituary

Annie was born August 10, 1947, in Orrville, AL to the late Clarzell and Roberta Hatcher and was the second child of thirteen children. As a young child Annie was affectionately named Lil Bay which stood for Little Baby. At an early age Annie travelled with her mother to various states to attend gospel events. Annie later moved to Selma, AL where she attended R.B. Hudson High School. After graduating high school Annie performed secretarial work at the church. At the strong recommendation of her mother, Roberta Moore Hatcher, Annie enrolled in an LPN Program in Selma, AL. Before graduation Annie worked at Craig Air Force Base doing secretarial work. Later Annie worked as a nurse at Good Samaritan Hospital in Selma, AL. Annie also actively participated in the Civil Rights Movement marching from Selma to Montgomery, AL. In her twenties Annie relocated to Boston, MA to help her younger sister Roberta Pearl. In Boston she married Albert Jones and they built a life. Together they raised four children and recently celebrated 52 years of marriage. Annie graduated from Mass Bay, Boston, MA with an RN degree. Later Annie completed her BA degree at Emmanuel College, Boston, MA. Annie worked at every major hospital in Boston including Brigham and Women's Hospital, New England Baptist Hospital and Massachusetts General Hospital. Annie then went to work for BlueCross Blue Shield for 20 years. After leaving BCBS she went to work as a Nurse Case Manager for Tufts Health Care where she was promoted and managed over 25 Nurses. Annie also had many interests including: sewing, baking, live jazz and reading a novel every week. Annie was adventurous, she enjoyed traveling with her husband, children and siblings going everywhere from New York to Canada and California to Paris, Mexico the Virgin Islands and everywhere in between. Many years ago, Annie use to bring her children to this same Kingdom Hall to study and she continued to study for several years to become a member and now she has returned. Annie was courageous and had a never give up spirit. Annie fought the good fight and continued to give through her selfless act as an organ donor. Annie's true calling was helping and caring for others, she freely gave of her time and her talent and will forever be remembered in our hearts as Love.

Annie Kate Hatcher Jones, 78 years old, transitioned on September 10, 2025, in Boston, Massachusetts. Annie was a woman of grace and strength and tremendous generosity and is survived by Albert Jones, Jeannie Brady, Susan Oujli, Anthony Jones, Carl Jones, Dwayne Jones, Shamarhi Blount, Akiela Blount, Harold Brady III, Hailey Jones, Juana Arocho, Leia Blount, Lux Blount, Xylon Jones, Zen Blount, Zoe Blount, siblings, nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

Order of Service

VIEWING

10:00am – 10:30am

Davis Funeral Home 89 Walnut Avenue Roxbury, MA

Family Procession 10:45am

95 Ruthven Street Dorchester, MA

SONG

OPENING PRAYER

OBITUARY

TALK

Brother Leicester McKenzie

SONG

CLOSING PRAYER

REPASS – 12PM

Annie's Favourite Bible Versus Psalm 23:1-6.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anoint my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.