"In Loving Memory of A Special Son"

Today is full of memories of a son laid to rest and every single one of them is filled with happiness. For you were someone special always such a joy to know and there was so much pain when it was time to let you go. That's why this special message is sent to Heaven above for the Angels to take care of you and give you all my love.

Known for Excellence. Trusted for Value.

LOVE is patient, love is kind... it does not envy, it does not boast
it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self seeking, it is not easily angered,
it keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil
but rejoices in TRUTH.
It always protects, always trusts,
always HOPES, always preserves.
LOVE NEVER FAILS

- 1 Corinthians 13: 4-8

Obituary

Barry Stone, a cherished individual known for his kind, loving, caring, and humorous personality, was born on January 5, 1994, at University Hospital to Margueriette Ellick and Barry Stone Sr.

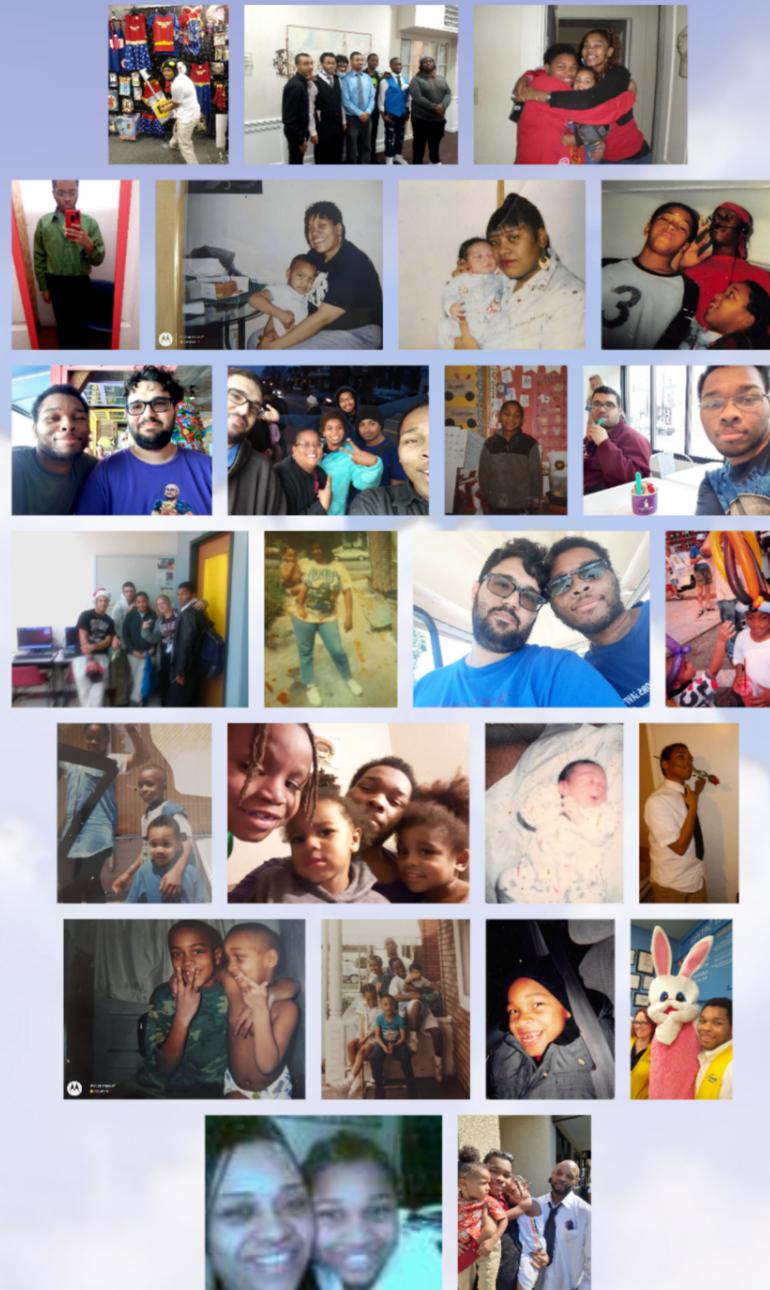

He left this earth on December 17, 2024, with family and friends by his side. Barry, also known as "Bear," lived a life filled with tremendous passion and kindness toward everyone.

Barry attended Western Hills High School and graduated in 2012. He was a shining example of how to think of others, a value central to his character. His school years were marked by his kindness, empathy, and capacity to bring joy to those around him. Barry loved his video games and spent countless days and nights playing. He enjoyed spending time with his fiancé, Treyvon, and his many siblings. He was truly a joy to be around whenever you encountered him.

Barry's most enjoyable moments and ways of connecting with the world were through his music. His musical interests were notable, and it became his go-to for peace. The soulful melodies he shared with loved ones continue to reverberate even as he is no longer with us. As we grapple with the loss of his physical presence, we find solace in knowing that his spirit lives on through those who loved him and the love he instilled in us.

Preceded in death by his grandmother, Celeste Stone, and many other relatives, they will meet him at heaven's gates with open arms.

Barry leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Margueriette; his father, Barry Sr.; his fiancé, Treyvon; his grandmother, Ms. Carol; his brothers, Laron, Reginald, Marquis, Larry, Eugene (aka Melo), Ajani, and Le'Mark; and his beloved sisters, Jamesia, Trayona, Paishence, and Katherine, his nephews Kain, Shiloh and Amir, whose lives were greatly enriched by Barry's presence. He is also survived by his loving aunts, Tracie, Jennifer, Katherine, and Angel; his uncles, Eugene and Larry; and his many cousins and friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Toussaint, Deonte, and Jhawndre.

Fill not your heart with PAIN AND SORROW,
 But remember me in every tomorrow...
 Remember the JOY,
 the LAUGHTER,
 the smiles,
 I've only gone to rest a little while.
 Although my leaving causes pain & grief
 My going has eased my hurt
 And given me relief.
 So dry your eyes and remember me,
 Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
 Because I will REMEMBER YOU ALL
 And look on with a smile.
 Understand in your hearts
 I've only gone to rest a little while

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul.
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me
 in the presence of mine enemies;
 Thou anointest my head with oil;
 my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
 And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
