

Acknowledgement

To all my family and friends I appreciate you being there and everything you have done to help support us during this time. I am truly grateful for everyone.

If I Should Go Tomorrow

If I should go tomorrow

It would never be goodbye,

For I have left my heart with you,

So don't you ever cry. The love

that's deep within me,

Shall reach you from the stars,

You'll feel it from the heavens,

And it will heal the scars.

Celebrating THE LIFE & LEGACY

Ayelegn Adane Asres was born in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia on January 04, 1996, to his father, Adane Asres and mother, Yezena Melaku.

Ayelegn finished elementary and high school at Lucy Academy and went to Hawassa University to study architecture.

Ayelegn was a loving son, a caring brother, and a special part of his family. He was deeply loved by his parents, his brother, and all his family members, both close and extended. They will always remember his kind and gentle heart.

Ayelegn enjoyed working with technology, listening to music, playing soccer, and spending time with friends and family. He found joy in serving the Lord and was an active member of his church choir, where his deep love for God shone. He passed away on Monday, September 29 th, 2025. He was 29 years old. His family preceded him in death.

Ayelegn leaves to cherish his memory his loving parents, Adane Asres and Yezena Melaku, who nurtured him with endless love and guidance; his devoted brother, Ammanuel Adane, with whom he shared a deep bond of laughter, friendship, and brotherhood that will forever remain unbroken. He is also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family members who adored him dearly, as well as close friends.
