Acknowledgment of Appreciation

The family of our beloved Cecil Davis wishes to express sincere and heartfelt appreciation for your visits, prayers, cards, flowers and other acts of kindness at these most difficult times in our lives. A more personal acknowledgement will be made at a later date.

THE OBITUARY

Cecil Howard Davis was born September 2, 1938 along with his twin sister Evelyn, in Detroit Michigan. He was the youngest and only boy of six children born to the union of the late Taft and Mae Beatrice Davis.

As a child, Cecil enjoyed reading to neighborhood kids and swimming. His favorite pass time was drawing various types of paintings. One of the most unforgettable paintings by Cecil was the face of Jesus Christ. It was so realistic that we believed it was spiritually inspired. Often times, Cecil used this special talent to express his inward feelings as a way to communicate.

Cecil accepted the Lord Jesus and was baptized in Jesus Name at an early age under the leadership of the late Bishop P.L. Lockett. He was a faithful choir member in the church.

As a young adult, Cecil was stricken with a mental condition which caused him to live in special facilities throughout his adult life. However, he continued to listen to God's word and maintain his spiritual faith until he was called to his heavenly home.

Cecil leaves to cherish his memories: twin sisters, Dorothy Walker and Doris Waters; Constance Ferguson (A special care giver and a second mom); Anna Campbell preceded him in death; twin sister, Evelyn Nash; brother in-law, Willie Campbell and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Cecil

By Contessah Irene Davis
(Your nieces and nephews)

A quiet storm, volumes spoken through artistry,
A double portion, over 82 cycles of peace,
The bulb of a sister's heart; dedicated, constant and bright,
Words far few and in between yet proclaiming the love of Jesus Christ.
A short leave of absence, while waiting on the other side of glory,
Robed and resting in grace, yet preparing to soon, share with us your story.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. - 2 Corinthians 5:8

Cecil you were a brother so special, you were one of a kind with a soft gentle spirit and a beautiful smile as the memory of you dashes through our minds.

We sisters will always love you and cherish the bond we shared
We are thankful to heaven for now you are resting so peacefully and eternal in the Fathers care.
Until we meet again,

Your Sisters
Dorothy, Doris, Constance, Evelyn (twin sister)
