

Ecclesiastes 3: 1 - 8

*There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity
under the heavens:*

- 2 a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,*
- 3 a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,*
- 4 a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,*
- 5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,*
- 6 a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,*
- 7 a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,*
- 8 a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.*

Mayola "Emmy" Perez

Born on November 22, 1992, in Sylmar, California, passed away peacefully on January 13, 2025, in West Hills, California. A remarkable soul, her kindness, laughter, and zest for life brought joy to everyone who had the privilege of knowing her.

Emmy was a cherished daughter, sister, and friend, known for her compassion and ability to connect with others deeply. She was a wonderful listener, a trusted confidante, and a source of comfort for many. Her empathy and understanding were among her most beautiful qualities, making her presence a gift to those around her. Her passions reflected her vibrant spirit.

Emmy loved exploring new recipes and sharing her culinary creations with loved ones, especially her beloved tamales during Christmas gatherings. She also found immense joy in music, drawing happiness and strength from the songs of BTS, her favorite Korean pop group. Her enthusiasm for Korean culture and her infectious laughter made her a delight to be around, creating countless cherished memories with family and friends.

Emmy's faith was a cornerstone of her life. One of her proudest moments was dedicating her life to Jesus Christ and being baptized in His name. Despite the challenges she faced, she celebrated significant milestones, including finishing high school and earning a place on the transplant list—a testament to her resilience and determination.

She is survived by her loving sisters, Maria Teresa Perez and Eli Perez, and her beloved cat Charlie De La Sprinkles, who will carry forward her memory with love and cherished moments. She was predeceased by her dear mother, Petra Perez Valadez, whose spirit and love remained a guiding force in her life.

A celebration of Emmy's life will take place on January 27, 2025, at Iglesia de Jesucristo Manantial De Vida, located at 20040 Parthenia St, Los Angeles, CA 91324. The viewing will begin at 6:00 PM, followed by a funeral service at 7:15 PM.

Mayola "Emmy" Perez will forever be remembered for her kindness, laughter, and the joy she brought to the lives of others. Her legacy reminds us to live with love, empathy, and a warm-hearted spirit that touches everyone we meet.

Emmy was a devoted cat pet parent, if anyone wishes to they can make a small donation in her honor to Crumbs and Whiskers, an organization that helps cats find loving forever homes. Emmy was also in need of a kidney at the time of her death, in her honor please consider being a living donor, for more information please visit: kidney.org
