gratitude

SUNRISE: January 23, 1978

SUNSET: August 15, 2025

The family of the late LaNikka Farmer wishes to extend our deepest and most sincere gratitude to everyone who has shown us love and support during this difficult time. Your prayers, comforting words, visits, calls, and every act of kindness have been a source of strength for us. We are truly grateful for each of you who stood with us, whether near or far, and we pray that God will continue to bless and keep you. May the beautiful memories we all share of LaNikka remain in our hearts forever

HER LIFE and legacy

LaNikka Shante Farmer
January 23, 1978 - August 15, 2025

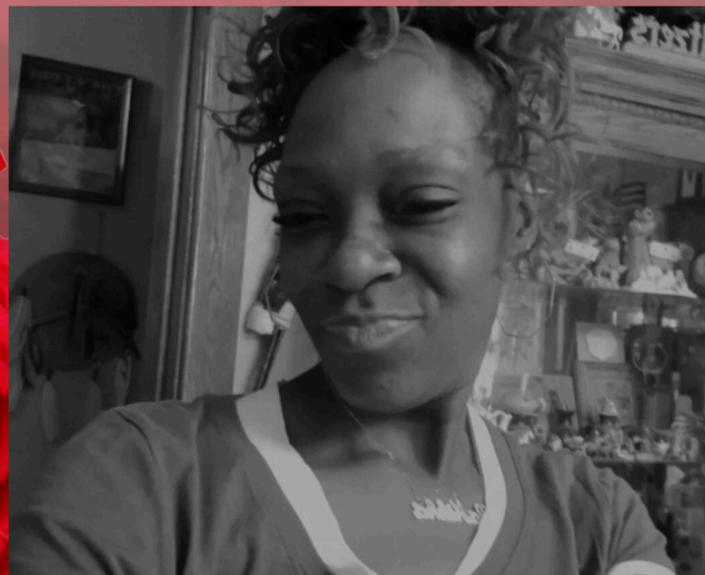

LaNikka Shante Farmer, of Saint Paul, Minnesota, passed away on August 15, 2025. Born to Paula Olorode and Sherman Farmer, LaNikka grew up surrounded by love and family. She was a proud graduate of Como High School and went on to dedicate her life as a PCA, caring for others with compassion and strength.

LaNikka was a devoted mother to her sons, Malik Farmer, Latrell Littles, Alan Littles Jr., and Amier Littles, and shared a devoted partnership with Alan Littles Sr. She also shared a special bond with her Godmother, Marjean. Her greatest joy was her family, especially her four grandchildren, who were the light of her life.

LaNikka will always be remembered as family-oriented and the life of the party. She had a gift for bringing laughter, joy, and warmth to everyone around her. She leaves behind her parents, Paula Olorode and Sherman Farmer, her beloved sons, significant other, four grandchildren, Godmother, two nephews and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who will cherish her memory forever.

LaNikka was reunited in eternity with her paternal grandmother Luberta Farmer, maternal grandmother Hattie Pearl Davis, her loving sister, Santita Olorode, cousins Takiesha D Davis and Semaj D Davis

LaNikka's legacy of love, laughter, and devotion to family will live on in the hearts of all who knew her

A BEAUTIFUL SOUL

Heaven's gates opened wide that day,

To guide your gentle soul away.

Though here on earth our hearts
still weep,

In God's great love, you rest, you sleep.

Reunited now with those before,

In joy and peace forevermore.

Your light still shines, your love
still stays,

Guiding us through our earthly days.

Until we meet in heaven's embrace,

We'll cherish your memory, your love, your grace.

Always

WORDS OF Love

FROM MOM

My Sweet LaNikka, God has called you home to be, with Santita, your sister
I thought I had time, more moments to hold you close,
But life has taken you both, leaving a mother's heart in sorrow.
Yet I carry your laughter, your love, your light,
In every memory, through every quiet night.
Though I walk this world without you near,
Your spirits remain with me, steadfast and clear.
Forever my daughters, my guiding stars above,
I hold you in my heart, wrapped in endless love.

FROM YOUR SONS

Mom,
You were always there for us, in the good times and the hard times, whether you felt up to it or not. You put our needs before your own and loved us more deeply than words can ever say, sometimes more than you loved yourself.
Your strength carried us, your love shaped us, and your sacrifices gave us the life we have today. We will forever hold onto your hugs, your laughter, and the way you never stopped believing in us.
We promise to carry your love in our hearts and honor you in the way we live our lives. You will always be with us, Mom, our protector, our guide, and our greatest blessing.
With all our love,
Malik, Latrell, Alan Jr., and Amier

FROM DAD

My sweet LaNikka, my heart, my pride,
With you, I always had my guide.
Though you have gone, your love stays near,
Forever in my soul, my dear.
