Life Reflections

Lerron Terrell Byers, 38, transitioned into the eternal realm on April 14, 2026. Lerron was born on August 4, 1987, to Lazeta (Bowden) Davis and Bervin Byers. He was lovingly raised by his bonus father, Brian Davis.

Lerron graduated from Raytown South High School in 2006. Affectionately known as “Pie” by his family and friends, he had a deep love for cooking—whether in the kitchen at home with his children or barbecuing at family gatherings. Sports were always an important part of his life and remained so into adulthood. He also had a passion for music, especially rap.

Lerron had a heart of gold and left a lasting impact on everyone he encountered. He was a devoted husband, a loving father, a dedicated worker, and a mentor and coach to many. Known for his laughter, fun-loving spirit, and radiant smile, Lerron cherished time spent with his family.

At an early age, Lerron was baptized in Christ at This Rock Christian Tabernacle under the leadership of Bishop George W. Reese Jr.

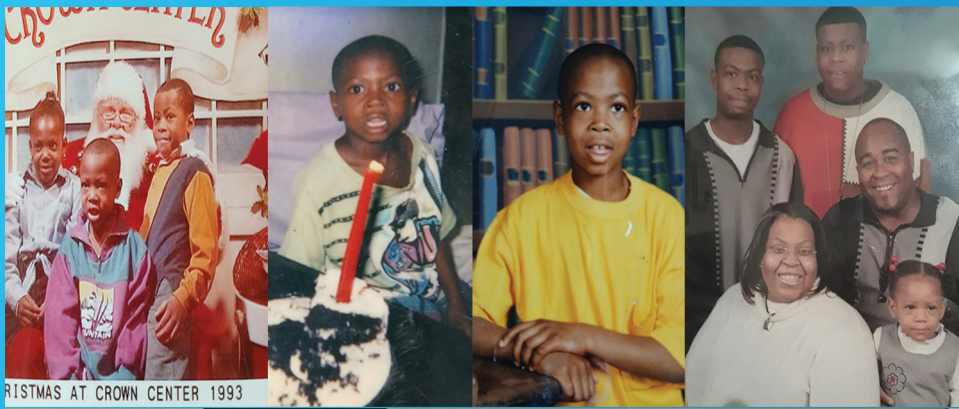

In 2018, Lerron began working at Shamrock, where he started as a driver assistant and later advanced to the position of dock supervisor through his hard work and dedication.

Lerron will be deeply missed and forever remembered in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

He was preceded in death by his maternal great-grandparents, Richard and Dorothy Scott; maternal grandmother, Vera L. Bowden; Aunt Velma Scott (“Aunt Bam”); paternal grandparents, Bervin Byers Sr. and Betty Byers; and special cousins, Craig Dydell and Michael Hubbard.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Lazeta (Brian) and Bervin (Adrienne); his beloved wife, Kristina Byers; his children: Ty’Ron, Michael, Lerron Jr., Zy’Aire, and Zion Byers; his brothers: Derron (Bianca), Bervin III, Blair, and Blake; his sisters: Rashawnda, Zoria, Lexie, Keyonna, and Brenttnei; his maternal grandfather James (Martina) Bowden, grandmother Malinda Davis, aunt Bertina, aunt Veresa, aunt Elcarmenta, uncles: James and Brecke; a very special cousin, Asia Lacey, and a host of extended family and friends.

Letter to Dad

Dad,

We didn't know silence could feel this loud, like the house itself remembers you, and keeps calling your name.

You weren't just our father, you were the voice in the stands, the early morning rides, the "Get up, let's go" even when we didn't want to. You showed up every time like it was the only place in the world you were meant to be.

We'll miss your laughter the most, the way you could turn anything into a roast session. No one was safe, especially us. And somehow, that was love. That was home.

We'll miss your raps throughout the house, rapping along like no one was listening. Your love for music became the soundtrack of our lives. We'll hear you in every song that made you smile, every beat that reminds us of the joy you carried.

You taught us strength without ever saying a word, taught us how to stand tall by standing beside us. You taught us respect by setting the example.

Every accomplishment, every game, every practice, every small moment, we didn't realize was big, you were there.

Now we carry you differently. In the jokes we'll keep telling, in the way we'll show up for the people we love, in the strength you built into us, without us even knowing.

We'll miss you more than words can hold, but we'll love you longer than time allows. And every time we laugh, really laugh, we'll know, You'll still be right here with us.

Love Your Sons

Always and Forever

*Almost nineteen years we walked this life side by side.
Through tender moments and loud laughter.*

Through every Storm and every Sunrise. My rock when the ground felt unsteady.

My light when the world grew dark. My Shelter from all my fears.

My steady hand when I was down. Forever the keeper of my heart.

Together we built a life of love! Five handsome boys, they are your living legacy!!

In their smiles, I see your light. In their eyes, I see your strength.

You are more than a husband. You are my best friend, my safe place.

You are my always and forever, My beginning and end.

19 years was not nearly enough.

But every moment was a gift I will hold onto and cherish.

Though heaven may hold you now, my heart will hold you close forever.

Goodbyes are not forever, Goodbyes are not the end,

They simply mean till we meet again

I love You Always and Forever My King!

A Letter To My Brother

Words can't explain the type of man you were. Watching you grow into a man as my brother you were always solid, respected and 10 toes down.

When I went away, you stepped up for my boys, no questions asked. Words can't describe how much I truly appreciated you.

Allah knows best. Since you are gone now, as my brother's keeper, I'm going to do my best to raise your boys to become the great men you wanted them to be.

I wish you would have waited on me to come home so we could follow through with our plans.

Losing you left a hole in my heart. Some days are hard, but I stay focused because I know you would want me to keep going.

I love you so much bro. Save a spot for me.... From the cell,
Your Big Brother, Derron
