

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF A WARRIOR

Coach Jack Price
1932 - 2022

Reflections of Life

Jack Price, the oldest son of John Thomas Price and Letha Davis Price, was born in Dallas, Texas, on May 22, 1932. As a small child, Jack spent some of his younger years living in Elkhart, Anderson County, TX, with his grandparents, Abraham Price and Emma Dickerson playing with his cousins. He attended Henderson Elementary School before returning to Dallas.

As a lifelong member of St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Dallas, TX, he was baptized and accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior, later serving as a church Trustee. He enjoyed a daily phone conference with his prayer partners, a men's fellowship group, for bible study, and Christian fellowship.

Jack developed a love for sports early in life that lasted throughout his adulthood. As a Booker T. Washington High School student, he excelled in football and track. His athletic abilities earned him a full scholarship in football at Prairie View A & M University (PVAMU) in Prairie View, Texas. After entering college in 1949, he earned a Bachelor of Science and later a Master's in Education. During his undergraduate years, he excelled in football, receiving a host of honors, including being a vital part of two Conference Championship teams in 1951-52. He was named Most Valuable Player in 1952, being recognized as "the Best Defensive Player" on PVU's 1952 team.

He served two years in the United States Army as a military radar operator and received an honorable discharge. After serving in the military and graduating from college, Jack distinguished himself as an American History teacher, coach, and student mentor for 40 years with Dallas Independent School District. He began his professional career as an educator and coach at Booker T. Washington High School from 1963 to 1967. Later he became an educator and assistant head coach at L. G. Pinkston High School from 1967 until he retired in 2003.

He has had the pleasure of being a head coach for Soccer and Swimming and an Assistant Coach for Football, Basketball, Baseball, and Track & Field. He taught Driver's Education and was blessed and honored to lead groups of young men in a school-based chapter of an international non-profit Christian sports ministry known as the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He firmly believed in education and encouraged his students to finish high school and seek higher education.

Coach Jack Price was honored with induction into the Texas Black Sports Hall of Fame, housed in the African American Museum located in Dallas, TX, in 2004 and the Prairie View A&M University Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

So, whether you called him "Husband, Friend, Coach, Prayer-Partner, Daddy, Grandpa, or Jack," Coach Jack Price was loved and respected by many.

Jack was preceded in death by his parents, John and Letha Price, brothers John Price Jr., Raymond Chris Price, Warner Lee Price, and David Ray Price, Sr., son Arthur Ray Price, grandson Tristan "Tony" Rivera, and granddaughter Keyanna Price-Wells.

Jack is survived by his wife, Linda Richardson-Price; three children Jack Price, Jr., (Arlette) of Denver, Co., Everette Jay Price of Dallas, Tx., and Atty Elaine G. Price of Dallas, Tx. Bonus children Venesha Curry (Michael) of Lancaster, TX. and Reginald Richardson of Dallas, Tx., grandchildren Damon Javon Price, Jack Price III, Nicholas Curry, Reginald Richardson Jr., Miracle Richardson Fuller Curry, Destinee Williams Esq., and Serenity Richardson as well as a host of great-grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

To My Family

*I am home in heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright.
There is a perfect joy
and beauty in this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
safely home in heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh, but Jesus' love illuminated
Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me in the way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on could
I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely,
for I love you dearly still.
Try to look beyond death's shadows;
Pray to trust our Father's will.*

*There is work still waiting for you,
so you must not idly stand.
Do it now, while life remains;
you shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting;
Oh, the joy to see you come*

I Am Learning How to Live

~ From your Loving Wife Linda

*I am learning how to live in a new way
Since that day You were taken away.*

*I am learning how to live with the things left unsaid
Knowing I got to say them with every tear that I shed.*

*I am learning how to live by embracing the pain
Knowing that you live on Through the memories that remain.*

*I am learning how to live Knowing I will never again see your face
And I have peace knowing You're in a better place.*

*I am learning how to live Knowing you're in God's care
It gives me the strength to move on and makes the pain much easier to bear.*

To my husband, I am proud to be your wife. The fun we had together, got us through sickness and all. I was always in love with you, my family and I are crazy about you and miss you dearly. I hate you left me this way, but I understand. I will always love and cherish you and keep you in my thoughts. I am fortunate enough to have my children help me through this, because they know just how much I am missing you.

I Am Learning How to Live

Sending Deepest Condolences To The Entire Family. So Deeply Sorry For The Passing Of Such A Family Treasure Such As Coach Jack Price Who Will Be Missed Dearly.

May God Of All Comfort Be With You All During This Difficult Time. The Passing Of Coach Jack Price May Be Difficult To Bear, But The Sorrow You Feel Is The Sorrow We Share. During The Time Of Transition, Please Know That We Really Do Care. A Life That Was Well Lived & Not A Life That Was Wasted, God Saw Best, An Angel Has Been Called Home, Forever An Angel And Forever Loved.

Rest In God Peace Sweet Angel Coach Jack Price.

May God Bless You And Keep You.

Today Let's Not Be Content To Feel His Passing, But Instead To Cherish The Memories Of The Time We All Shared.

Miss & Love You Always Coach

I Love You Mrs. Linda Price

God Bless You Dearly

Tributes of Remembrance

Dear Daddy, thank you for loving and caring for me throughout the years. There are no adequate words to express my love and gratitude for you. I find comfort and peace in the wonderful memories we shared. I will hold you within my heart where you will remain until we meet again somewhere around God's alter. Your absence from the body just means that you're at home with the Lord. With all my love, your daughter, Elaine.

To Jack

*God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb
You gently closed those loving eyes and whispered Peace be Thine!
The weary hours, the days of pain, the sleepless nights are passed,
Your ever-patient worn-out frame has found sweet rest at last.*

Your Special 1st Cousin, Mrs. Mary Wright Luckey & Family

Jack,

*You have been my friend since I was born.
I will always love you
Miss you...
