REFLECTION OF Life

Kandiya Marie Singleton January 12, 2032 was called home to rest in God's loving arms. Kandiya was born in Northridge, California to Bertram and Sherrie (Kelly) Day of Lancaster, California. She graduated from Quartz Hill High School in 1967 with a 4.8 GPA where she was a member of the International Baccalaureate Program and the starting point guard of the girl's varsity basketball team. Kandiya demonstrated excellence in the classroom and on the basketball court. Kandiya earned her Bachelors of Arts in Political Science from Azusa Pacific University in 2013. She went on to earn the degree of Juris Doctorate at Arizona Summit Law School in 2015.

Before her passing, Kandiya was working at Aerotek in Glendale, Arizona while preparing to take the State Bar Exam to pursue a career as an attorney. While at Aerotek, she made treasured friendships and was an integral part of the team. Kandiya was a passionate entrepreneur and created her clothing line: S.O.L.O. - Successful Ones Live On. She strived for excellence, had great determination, and led by example.

Kandiya's sheer determination, brilliance, competitive nature, and resilience attributed to her success. Her awareness, fortitude, and intellect were exemplary, and her kindness resonated throughout her beautiful life. Her persistent pursuit of excellence garnished her leadership roles academically, athletically, and professionally, which earned her numerous accolades and success. Tenacity, she was born with it; but she also was loyal, observant, and grounded in faith.

Preceding her in death - paternal grandparents, I.L. and Leah (Dyer) Day, maternal grandparents, Horace Kelly Jr. and Pasty (Johnson) Kelly; triplet brothers: Bertram Jr; Bryant, and Brandon.

Kandiya is survived by her twin brother: Breuan Day; sisters: Sherrece Evans; Sherrie Evans; God Sisters: Cherrelle Johnson; Seville Straham; God Parents: Virgil Johnson and Barbara (Straham) Miles; Uncles, Aunts, three Nephews, two Nieces, Godchildren and a host of Relatives and Friends.

SOMETIMES IN Life

Since the loss of you,
I've learned to live for each day
And take it as a blessing,
Knowing it may not always be this way.

Since the loss of you,
I've learned that when everything goes wrong
To never give up on what is right
Because it can only make you strong.

Since the loss of you,
I've learned that even when you're in a lot of pain
You've got to hold yourself together
So you won't feel like you're going insane.

Since the loss of you,
I've learned how to hold the tears when I want to cry
Because all I have is memories
And just want to ask God why.

But mostly, since the loss of you,
I've learned a life can be taken in the blink of an eye
And only Heaven really knows when
That person will have to say "Goodbye."

Your Best Friend, Carol
