Celebrating THE LIFE OF

Annette Simpson

Heaven Sent: April 5, 1940 - Heaven Bound: June 11, 2025

Obituary

Annette Simpson began her life journey on April 5, 1940, to Joseph & Josephine Miller in Sadieville, KY. There she attended the Great Crossing School of Scott County.

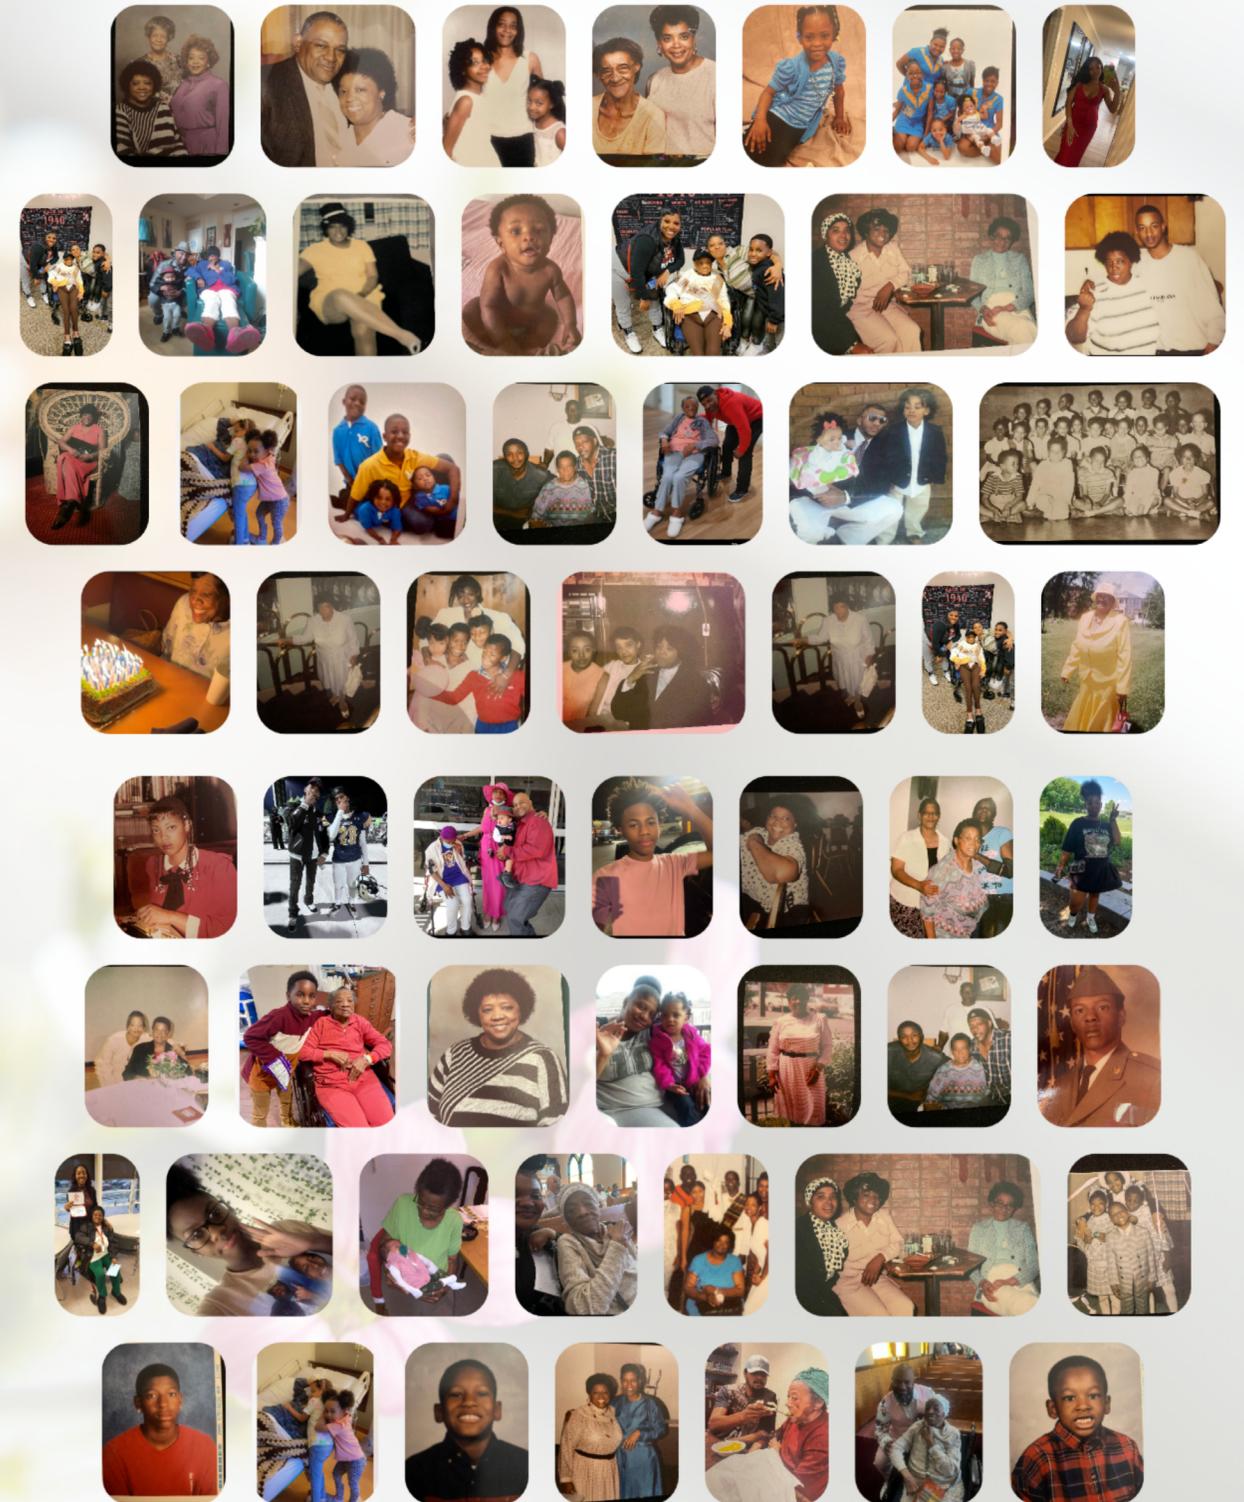

Outside of school, she spent most of her youth serving Christ at the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, which she became a member through baptism.

By age 13, Annette's family left their small town of Sadieville to relocate to Covington, KY where she settled in with her younger siblings, Delores Mary Jo James, Judy Ann and Michael Miller. She attended William Grant & Lincoln Grant schools. She became a member of Ninth Street Baptist Church where she continued to serve for over 40 years as an usher.

It is in Covington, Annette married and later divorced Robert Lee Simpson Sr. From these offsprings would come 15 grandkids, 28 great grandkids, and 7 great great grandkids.

Annette was a hardworking woman who took pride in taking care of her family. She raised two generations by often working two jobs throughout the years. One being her place of employment at Northern Kentucky University where she was honored for her hard work before retiring.

In addition to her sister Judy, 4 children and all her grandchildren and so on, she also leaves behind her to mourn, her uncle Robert Ingguls, 2 nieces, Paula Miller & Bonita Simpson, a daughter-in-law Loucille Jones, and son-in-law Harry Brown, as well as a host of other family & friends.

Everyone needs a friend like you. Someone to tell them how proud you are of them, who gives you positive advice, acknowledges your beauty inside and out. A friend that's always honest with them. You were that friend! You had my front, I had your back! Your right hand granddaughter, Sha'Ron

Soul.... Some will never know the meaning. soul... some may feel it. Soul.... Some may miss it but the soul, ive always known put family first. The soul ive always known knew love and put that same soul into her food. The soul ive always known will forever keep my family together. The soul ive always known will always be remembered and never forgotten and that soul is you. Love u granny - Lil Man-

Welcome Home from Sam

Grandma,
I'm so excited, couldn't wait til u arrived, I've even fluffed ur wings as u patiently wait in line. I watched u grow tired, I asked God when it will be. He promised not long, til you'll be here with me. You suffered much in silence, ur spirit did not bend, U faced ur pain with courage until the very end. I heard you as you wept and often moaned and groaned, I tried to send u signals as god would call u home. I've alerted all the others, that u were on ur way. Ur moms now making room for u to come and stay. Don't worry about ur kids, ur grandchildren are okay. God will too unite them, with us again one day. For now we shall celebrate, lets sing ur favorite songs. Grandma, oh what a joy it brings, to finally have u home!

Legacy of Love

A Wife, a mother, a grandma too, this is the legacy we have for you

You taught us love & how to fight, you gave us strength, you gave us might

A stronger person would be hard to find, you were so sweet, you were always kind

You fought for us one way or another, not just as a wife, not just as a mother,

For all of us you gave your best, now come the time for you to rest,

Go in peace, you've earned your sleep, your love in our hearts we'll eternally keep.

A Letters From Your Children

Mom you were the strongest women I know. I could never measure up to be. The best mother and friend. A true child of God! Your oldest daughter, Belinda I cannot put into words what you mean to me! I love u just that much! Your son, Robert You were the perfect mother, grandmother. Just all out, the perfect woman! Your daughter Beverly To my loving mother from your baby girl, u will be forever missed! - Barbara

Letters From Your Grandchildren

Granny it's not a day that goes by that I don't think about you. I wish I could call heaven and have a conversation with you and tell you everything that's on my mind like how it was such a honor for you to trust me within your last days and how blessed and grateful I am to have experienced you throughout my life. I could never repay you for who you have been to me! Thank you! I love you! We love you!

Your Granddaughter, Darlene

Grandmother, you were strongest woman I have ever known. You were my second home, my safe place. My protection. I knew you loved your family and the lord and whenever we were with you, everything was ok! - Britney
