Obituary

ED III, son of the late Helen Mariano Cruse Jr., was born in New York, New York, on May 21, 1946. Ted was the third born of Elroy Cruse, Brenda Rochella Cash, and Darrick Cruse. Ted preceded him in death.

Ted attended New York public schools and later graduated from New York University on May 26th of 1966. Ted decided to join the U.S. Army where he served 3 years with 1 of the years being overseas. He was relieved of his duties May 9, 1969 and received a National Defense Service Medal.

Ted and his family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where he worked for McCormick for several years, later becoming a dispatcher. Ted was a part of the Baltimore Orioles and would sing bass; we all know how he loved to sing. Ted later retired from Comcast.

Ted's youngest and only daughter, Rebecca Ruth Cruse, is his firstborn. Ted's oldest son Darrick Theodore Cruse and his youngest son Cory Cruse. Ted really loved his children, and he wanted them to stay together and always look for the good in life. Ted loved the simple things in life like riding his motorcycle, taking long road trips and talking with his dear relationship with God as a Seventh

Day member. Ted's family includes his brother, Elroy and sister, Brenda; his sons, Darrick and Cory; two stepdaughters, Daphne and Kenneth; two daughters-in-law, Daphne and Daphne Jones; grandchildren, Chrystopher, Daphne, and Daphne; grandchildren, Brehona, Nicole, Micheal, and Daphne; children, Ariel, Zion and Wolfgang; his wife, Brenda; and a host of other family and

*John 5:25
"I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live."*

Today I stop, Dear Lord, to think of all the things You've done. All of the tears You've dried for me and all of the battles won. All of the times my head hung low, without a friend to care. Now, looking back, I can clearly see that You were there for me. You've heard my prayers when no one knew the pain I felt inside. So many times, no words would come. So, I just knelt down and cried. Lord, one more thing I ask of You, as I go on my way. May all the love and blessings sent may somehow be repaid. May those I met wherever I go see Christ in all I do. May all the deeds and all my ways, say Lord, Oh Lord, how much I Love You.
