

My love lil John, my precious first born my grease monkey from the moment I held you. You became my reason to smile. You were my mechanic, helper and friend. You kept our cars running, but more that that you kept my spirit going with love and laughter and your love. Life was not supposed to be without you. My heart aches knowing I can't hear your voice or see your smile and those long eyelashes again on this side, but I take comfort knowing you are safe in God's arms free from pain.

Until we meet again Mommy loves you always and forever.

Psalm 23:4

Even though I walk through the darkest valley. I will fear no evil, for you are with me your rod and your staff they comfort me.

Obituary

John O. Nichols III, at a early age of 34, departed the earth and entered into the gates of heaven on Friday, July 25, 2025, at Scarlet Oakes Community Rehabilitation Center.

He was the first born to both Vensus Chanel Brow and John O. Nichols Jr. of whom always surrounded him with their love. John's life as a small child growing up was always full of love and it will be kept onward in his absence.

John was a residence of Louisville, Kentucky where he attended Pleasant Ridge Park School and as well Bluegrass Academy challenge of Fort Knox, Kentucky. He then relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio in which he then learned to work on cars and become an Auto Mechanic, and that was something that he loved to do it was his passion to get down and greasy.

When he came around it was always love, and you never knew what to expect from John. He would be there so silent with his dreamy eyes and long eyelashes. You just could not help but to love him.

Even in his time of illness his toughest days were his strongest, and he tried to remain courageous. With determination he was still passionate, loving, and he never wavered.

John is preceded by death by his grandparents of Cincinnati, Ohio Jonny O. Nichols Sr. and Sondra K. Nichols.

He leaves to mourn, his beautiful children that he loved and admired Aubrey Kay and John Nichols of Louisville, Kentucky and Jahmir Lee of Cincinnati, Ohio; his siblings Evan O. Nichols, Krosse Bennett and Kian Colvin; His heart was extended to his living grandparents Roslyn Sand and Ben Colvin. John was an uncle to three beautiful nieces. He also leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles and countless family members that will keep his memories close.

John touched everyone that he came in contact with. His joy, kindness, courage, and his braveness will forever inspire those that knew him.
