

Tributes of Love to Our Mother

Mom, I will forever miss your unique way of parenting—something no one else could ever match. Your life touched so many people, and the footprints you left behind will never be forgotten. Your love was sincere, genuine, and freely given, and I am truly blessed to have called you my mother. ~ Jenny

Mama, I will always tell the stories of how wonderful my childhood was—because you were the best mother anyone could ever have. We danced together, sang together, laughed together, and even cried together. Through it all, you were always there to lift me up.

You nurtured me with strength, love, and honesty. I stand today because of the lessons you taught me, and I continue to walk in faith and dignity because your heart will always live within mine. ~ Debora Deloris Hill

Mother, I love you, and you will be greatly missed. Your love will forever remain in my heart. ~ Super

Mom, I thank you for the tough love and life lessons, as well as the gentle hugs and unwavering affection you always gave. Those moments helped shape and mold me into the person I am today. From birth to this very moment, you have always been my backbone.

Now it is time for you to take your rest here on earth after a job well done. ~ Khadija (Baby of the Bunch)

Mother Gladys Deloris White Hill
 FEBRUARY 1, 1946 - FEBRUARY 18, 2026

*“Well Done Good and Faithful Servant...Enter the Joy of the Master”
 Matthew 25:21*

Mother Gladys Deloris White Hill was the much-loved daughter of George White and Pearlie Mae Brown Thompson. Born on February 1, 1946, she spent her formative years guided by caring family members and neighbors who lived on Happy Street in the Georgetown Community of Madison, Florida. She relocated to Detroit, Michigan, as a young adult and lived there for many years raising her family. She returned to North Florida, and for the next 30 years, she resided in Jacksonville. She moved to Tallahassee later in life.

Having given her life to Christ earlier, Mother Hill was drawn to worship at The Word of Life Ministry in Jacksonville, Florida. Under the pastoral leadership of Bishop Walter Johnson and Assistant Pastor Bee Johnson, she offered her service to the greater honor and glory of God. Her love for the Lord reflected His light that made her a shining example of His goodness and grace. Because of her witness, faithfulness, and service, she was chosen to become a “Mother” of the Church, a position she held in high esteem.

Mother Hill began her formal studies at Madison County Training School in Madison. When she relocated to Jacksonville, she was compelled to advance her education by enrolling in the General Education Development (GED) program offered at Jones College. Determined to do her best, she scored so high on the exam that she was awarded a diploma instead of the traditional certificate. Afterwards, she bridged over to Jones College to earn certification as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). With this preparation, she was able to fulfill her desire to become a loving and compassionate care giver for nursing home residents as well as for patients in need of her private health care services.

Whenever Mother Hill blessed others, her blessings multiplied because of her generosity and faith. She loved to cook and enjoyed eating her meals, but most of all, she was a giving spirit who loved to share with others.

In her pastime Mother Hill enjoyed listening to Gospel music, especially that of her favorite singer, Lee Williams of the Spiritual QCs. On the other hand, she loved listening and/or dancing to the R&B Oldie Goldies. Her true enjoyment, however, was spending as much time as possible with the “apples of her eye”- her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and family.

Mother Hill was a pillar of faith who “built her hope on things eternal because she held to God’s unchanging hand.” She believed that it was God’s Divine plan to grant her peace and eternal rest. Therefore, on Wednesday, February 18, 2026, she gently closed her eyes and transitioned from her earthly life to receive her heavenly reward. It is well with her soul.

Mother Gladys Deloris White Hill is greatly loved, deeply missed, and will always have a special place in her loved ones’ hearts. Her legacy of love, hope, service, and genuine concern for the well-being of others will be cherished forever. Those whose faith assures them they will see her again one day are her life companion/ father to us all: Tyrone Smith; son: Tyrone Hill; daughters: Jenetha (Stephen) Cureton, Debora Hill, Khadija (Antonio) Green; brothers: Ivory Thompson, David Thompson, Benjamin Thompson, and George (Pamela) Thompson, Jr.; sisters: Georgia (Horace) Bell, Ozetta Littles, Ola Young, Elexia (Curtis) Akins, Dora Edwards, and Lula King; sister-in-law: Brenda Thompson; brother-in-law: John Gavin; sixteen grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren; best friend: Mae Ola Moore; and godson: Darren Moore; along with many other sorrowing relatives; sympathetic friends, and caring neighbors.

Preceding Mother Gladys Deloris White Hill in death were her parents: George White and Pearlie Mae Brown Thompson; brothers: Willie Thompson, Albert Thompson, and James Thompson; sisters: Carrie Gavin, Pearlie Williams, Eva Siplin, Francis White, Gertrude Thompson, and Nancy Williams; and grandchild: Lydell Hill.

*“For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that in the end,
 He will stand on the earth.”
 Job 19:25 (NIV)*
