The family takes this moment to say thank you for all acts of kindness and sympathy shown during this time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

(Until We Meet Again)

My Journey of Life

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Warren Ericson Middlebrooks, Jr., 37 of Phoenix, Arizona, passed away on Saturday, August 30, 2025.

Mr. Middlebrooks was a graduate of Memorial Day School and attended Bethune-Cookman University.

Warren was very active in sports. He was a blackbelt in Taekwando. Warren enjoyed playing football and basketball, earning him the nickname "The Big Worm." Warren loved his family.
