

"To My Annie"

Annie .. i still don't know what to say. words won't ever be able to explain the impact you left on my life. you helped me become a woman and for that i thank you. a lot of little girls grew up with a grandma and a grandpa but with my aunt peni and my gg i was okay. you always told me don't show no weakness and go hard for myself or nobody will & do for me so others can see in me what even i can't ; and i can truly say that's the one i live off. thank you for filling in for my pawpaw , you made my 20 years worth it. every conversation every sit down when i was in trouble every single yell on the phone i swear it was worth it annie you were there for my family when nobody was. all the odds were against my mom and her 3 and you were there im so sad you not here annie, but as long as im breathing you're legacy and your pure intentions will always live through me your "little black duck" 🐤🐤 i love you annie forever us ∞ ..

Kyree

Dear Maw Maw

Dear Maw Maw,

You were and will always be the best grandma to ever live! You was always there making a way for us! You loved us unconditionally and we couldn't ask for more.

You made a beauty salon in your basement for my sisters and I! You never missed a beat with Willie for band! You loved all of us and we are forever grateful for you Maw Maw! We promise to make you proud! We love you

Obituary

Paige Allison Taylor, affectionately known as Penn, Penne, or Penny, was born on March 19, 1963, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Marva Williams and Juno Taylor.

Paige took her last breath on October 2, 2025, in Cincinnati, Ohio, after a courageous battle with cancer. At the time of her passing, Paige was 62 years old.

Paige graduated from Mt. Healthy High School. She flourished in life and later married Kimberly Stacey Fulton, who preceded her in death. Together, they created a legacy with their three children, to whom she devoted her life. Paige was truly one of a kind—she loved providing for her family and continued her education at the University of Cincinnati, where she earned her associate’s degree.

Paige was fierce, smart, and beautiful. Over the years, she faced health challenges and was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2004. For more than 20 years, Paige fought a hard battle and never once showed weakness.

Paige worked for Metro, First Student, and Crosswell, and spent her last 10 years working for the Department of the Treasury.

One thing about Paige—she was a fun-loving mother and “Maw-Maw.” Paige was a wonderful and kind-hearted person to everyone she met. She loved good food, good company, and laughter. Once a friend, always a friend. And if you called, she was coming. Paige would do anything for you and give you her last; one only needed to ask.

Paige was preceded in death by her grandmothers, Marian Williams and Coretta Taylor; her brother, Christopher Taylor; her nephew, William; and her cousins, Rosalyn and Renee.

She is survived by her loving mother, Marva Anderson; brothers, Demetrius Carter and Vance Taylor; sisters, Dedire Taylor and Corretta Taylor; sons, Eric T. Taylor and Parris T. Fulton; daughter, Breiana S. Barber (Myrick Barber Jr.); and bonus daughter (niece), Krystal Taylor.

Paige was a proud grandmother to 19 grandchildren: Orianna, Makylah, Nariah, Erion, Kadence, Kaderick, Ayris, Parris Jr., Bre’Aysa, Willie III, Wil’Niyah, Brielle, Braylen, Willeigha, Breyon, Bria, and Brina; and bonus grandchildren Rikky, Kyree, Rico, and Julez. Paige was also a great-grandmother to “Alexa the Great,” who is due to make her grand entrance in January 2026.

She leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and very dear friends.

Dear Momma

Job well done my girl!! Job well done! You deserve your rest baby, I love you with all my heart and I know that everything you done was for my brothers and I. Respectfully I can say nobody can do what you’ve done! When I was young girl you taught me how to stand on my own two feet, I remember you had me outside digging up bushes and trees! You taught me strength, dedication and patience. You never allowed us to show weakness and I thank you for that!! I love you baby I love you more than you know! You gave me life I can’t complain!! You did yo big one, hug my daddy and gone head gossip about me lol, I’m sad to see you go, but I know I have the best protectors and army protecting me! Get your rest my love enjoy your “Party on the Roof”

Love Your Daughter

Breiana Stacey
