WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me;*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love, me,
As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too;*

*But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, And took me by the hand,*

*And said my place was ready,
In heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.*

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

His Story

Jerry Woods was born on August 14, 1929 in Arista, West Virginia. He was the youngest of six children born to Benjamin H. Woods and Susie Richardson Woods. He died on February 25, 2024 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Jerry grew up in Marion, Virginia where he and his siblings were surrounded by his many aunts, uncles and cousins who helped nurture and comfort him after the death of his mother when he was thirteen years old. He was deeply grateful for the care provided by his aunts and extended family during his teenage years. Jerry graduated from Carnegie High School in 1949. Shortly thereafter, he was drafted and served in the Army during the Korean War. After completing his military service, he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from Claflin University in Orangeburg, South Carolina. That same year, he accepted a teaching position in Winston Salem, North Carolina where he met and married the lovely Juanita Martin. They were blessed with the birth of Diana, their only child. Jerry relocated to Philadelphia when this marriage ended, and worked for the City of Philadelphia. During this time he met Beulah, his second wife.

Jerry was known for his wonderful sense of humor. He was also a jokester who enjoyed telling stories. He was a sports enthusiast who enjoyed coaching youth sports teams and watching basketball and football games.

Jerry is survived by his daughter, Diona Barrett of Winston Salem, North Carolina; three grandchildren, Briona, Brittony and Benjamin Barrett; six great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. He will be missed by everyone who knew and loved him.
