Heaven Is The Place

Heaven is a sacred place
Where no signs of hatred can be traced
There's no night there's no day
Heaven is the place where God stays
The Alpha the Omega the First and Last
All our worries to God we can cast
God is the Beginning and the End
All our concerns to God we send
Heaven is a place of holy ground
Where Jesus and angels can be found
People of all religions congregate
Under God's leadership in a unified state
Heaven is the place free of fears
No pain no heartache no more tears
No hunger no thirst no sorrows
No more drought no more tomorrows
In the Bible Heaven is mention 276 times
Heaven is the place without crime
Heaven is the place we will stand
Stand together hand in hand

Obituary

A Life of Love, Compassion, and Lasting Impact

Darlene Slaughter, A beloved family member, cherished friend, and a remarkable woman whose life touched the hearts of many. Darlene Slaughter was born November 18, 1950, in Hamilton, Ohio to the late Aaron Slaughter Sr. and Dorthy Mae Slaughter. Darlene departed this earthly life on October 13, 2026, in Hamilton, Ohio.

Darlene was born and raised in Hamilton, Ohio where she attended Hamilton City Schools. She dedicated 25 years of service to the Booker T. Washington Community Center and an additional 10 years to the Butler County Juvenile Court, where she made a lasting difference in the lives of countless individuals and families.

Throughout her years of service, Darlene became a positive role model and a guiding light for many children and young adults in the community. She possessed a special gift for making others feel loved, supported, and valued. Through her kindness, wisdom, guidance, and encouragement, she poured into the lives of those who needed it most. Her influence extended far beyond her professional responsibilities, leaving a lasting imprint on the hearts of the children, families, and individuals she encountered.

Darlene's life was a testament to the power of love, kindness, and the lasting impact one person can have on the lives of others. She was a "Community Mother," she held a special place in the hearts of children who looked up to her, learned from her, and experienced the love and support she gave.

Darlene Slaughter was a passionate poet who wrote 4 inspirational books of poems pertaining to God and life's experience. Darlene Slaughter wrote Words To The Wise, Words To The Wise 2, Words To The Wise 3, and Words To The Wise 4. The book of poems is a collection of heartfelt poetry inspired by faith, life's experiences, and the enduring power of hope. These meaningful words offer comfort during challenging times, encouragement for life's journey, and reminders of God's love and grace.

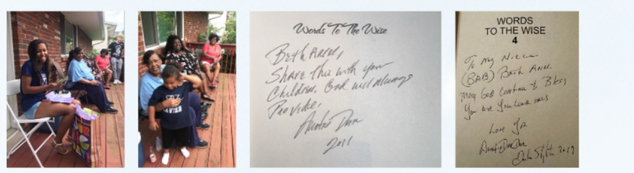

Darlene was proceeded in death by her parents, grandparents, sisters Sylvia Tatman (Slaughter), and Rosemary Bailey (Slaughter), brothers Charles Slaughter, Aaron Slaughter Jr., Myron Slaughter, and a loving niece Kiera Slaughter.

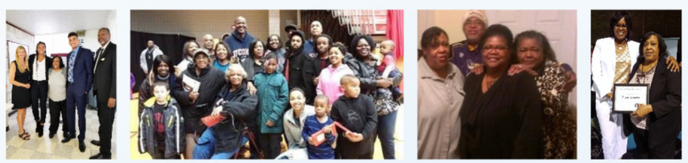

She is survived by her sisters Agnes Weatherall (Slaughter), Audrey Smiley (Slaughter), Patricia Slaughter, and Tina Slaughter. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: nieces; Yolanda "Nette" Slaughter, Karen Akparanta (Weatherall), Elizabeth "Beth Ann" Bailey, Jaye Slaughter, and Deidre Bailey, nephews; Aaron Slaughter, Vincent Weatherall, Charles Slaughter Jr., Rico Slaughter, Jermaine Smiley, Dane Slaughter, Chaz Bryant, Dominique Davis, and Myron Slaughter Jr., and a host of great nieces and great nephews.

The legacy Darlene leaves behind is measured by the lives she touched, the memories she helped create, and the love that will continue to live in the hearts of those who knew her. The seeds of love and kindness Darlene planted in the community will continue to grow for generations to come.

As we reflect on Darlene's life, we are reminded of the words found in 2 Timothy 4:7-8, which speak of finishing the race and keeping the faith. May those who mourn her find comfort in God's promises, strength in one another, and peace in knowing that the love Darlene shared will never be forgotten.
