*Oh Great Spirit,
whose voice I hear in the wind.
I am small and weak.
I need your strength and wisdom.
Make my eyes ever behold
the red and purple sunset.
Make my hands respect
the things you have made.
And my ears sharp to your voice.
Make me wise that I may know the things you have taught your children.
The lessons you have written
in every leaf and rock.
Make me strong.
Not to be superior to my brothers
But to fight my greatest enemy, Myself...
Make me ever ready to come to you
with straight eyes
So that when life fades
as the fading sunset
My spirit may come to you without shame.*

In Loving Memory of Cassidy Jean Fenner

May 13, 1998

June 5, 2024

Cassidy Jean Fenner was born in The Pas, Manitoba on Wednesday, May 13, 1998 to parents Sandra Marie Gates and Gary Ronald Fenner. She was a bright and beautiful child who stole the hearts of all who met her. Cassy attended Ecole Opasquia School where she gained many friendships that would last throughout her school years and some for a lifetime. She played minor hockey for many years with The Pas Huskies, rep teams and the Norman Wild. She was fortunate enough to bring home 4 provincial medals during her time playing and also had her dad as a coach which gave them quality time together. Cassy had a passion for art and creativity. She loved to paint, sculpt, she could cut hair, do great make-up and all of these skills were self taught, they all came natural to her. She was a big animal lover and had many pets over the years. Pippy meant so much to her. She loved to teach her tricks and loved to dress her up and make her silly hats. Cassy also loved to cook. Her specialty was ribs and if anyone else (Evan) would even try to cook the ribs it was made very clear by her THAT SHE MAKES THE RIBS.

Cassy was happiest working as a server and enjoyed meeting many great coworkers that turned into great friends. She enjoyed bonding with her mom over their mutual enjoyment of astrology, tarot cards and talking about their dreams and their meanings. Cassy loved learning about her culture and teachings of the old ways. She had a love and obsession with pretty rocks and from the time she could pick up a rock, that is when she started her collection. As a child she frequently came home with pockets full of rocks. This love of rocks stayed with her throughout her life. She was known to leave Inukshuks along her way whenever she got the chance. Her favorite place was purple sand beach at Clearwater Lake where she would crouch down at the waters edge and search through the sand for rocks for hours.

Cassy loved spending time outdoors with her family. Some of her most cherished memories were her walks with her Grandpa Gates, camping at Rocky Lake with Grandma and Grandpa Fenner and going fishing and quading. This time spent with them brought her so much joy.

Cassy had a special bond with her brother Reid. They loved to laugh and tease, especially their mom, and they shared countless inside jokes and loved to reminisce about funny old memories. Watching them love and laugh together was a beautiful thing to see. Cassy had a great sense of humor and loved to make people laugh...like a true Cormoranter. She loved to tell big stories, to laugh, to tease and of course give people funny nicknames. She took it as good as she gave it and was affectionately known as "Casshole" by her family and friends. She was very proud of that nickname.

The biggest love and joy of Cassy's life was her daughter Jade. Since becoming a mother the majority of Cassy's time was spent with her daughter. Everything she did was for Jade. She loved to give her the best and always went the extra mile for her. From setting up elaborate photo shoots to marking milestones in Jade's life, making the most creative cupcakes and meals for birthdays or creating a handmade costume when Jade wanted to be a "blue bird" for Halloween, she always made her daughters wishes come true. She truly loved her with all that she had and taught her so much.

Cassy was kind and generous, she loved to give gifts and was always willing to help a friend. She was beautiful, smart, athletic, loving, caring, stubborn, sensitive, brave and fearless woman.

The big energy that Cassy brought to the lives of everyone around her will not be forgotten. She was so many things to so many people, but most of all she was loved and will be greatly missed.
