Obituary

Charlie Holleworth, Jr. passed away peacefully into eternal rest on June 17, 2026, at the age of 77. Born in Greenwood Mississippi on March 14, 1949, he brought warmth, wisdom, and strength to everyone fortunate enough to know him throughout his rich journey of life. Charlie was a dedicated man whose devotion to his family, kindness to neighbors, and enduring spirit left a profound impression on the hearts of many.

He lived his life with quiet dignity and unconditional love, guiding his household and offering wisdom to the generations that followed him. His memory remains a guiding light, a legacy of grace that will be cherished forever by his loved ones.
