

OBITUARY

Steve McClanahan, born on January 18, 1968, in Cleburne, Texas, passed away on September 19, 2025, in Rio Vista, Texas. A devoted husband and loving father, Steve's life was marked by his unwavering commitment to his family and a steadfast work ethic.

He was known for his incredible skill in fixing anything that needed repair, showcasing his resourcefulness and problem-solving abilities. An avid hunter, he spent many happy hours participating in this beloved pastime, often combining his passion for the outdoors with his love for history, especially the rich stories surrounding battlefields.

Steve was a proud employee of The City of Cleburne, Rio Vista ISD, and Brock ISD, where his dedication and skills were well recognized. The legacy of his hard work and love for those around him will continue to inspire all who knew him.

Married for 22 years, Steve shared a deep and enriching partnership with his wife, Tracie McClanahan. Together, they nurtured a home filled with love and joy, creating cherished memories with their children.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Marvin Windell "Buzz" McClanahan and Barbara Kay Lewis, and his son, Timothy McClanahan.

Steve is survived by his wife Tracie McClanahan; son, Steven McClanahan, and his daughters, Elizabeth McClanahan and Shawna McClanahan; his brother, David McClanahan, and cousins, John and Marilyn, and many extended family members.
