

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Virginia Louise Hutchins, affectionately known as "Louise," was born on September 23, 1950, in Anniston, Alabama, to the late Frank and Earlecie Funderburg. She was one of five children born to this union. Her brother, Robert Earl (Sandra), preceded her in death. The Lord called Virginia home from this earthly life on June 13, 2026.

Virginia was a faithful member of Ebenezer Second Baptist Church for many years. She enjoyed serving in the Kitchen Ministry. Sister Hut was known for her fabulous meals, and everyone looked forward to her famous chicken and dressing! In addition to her Kitchen Ministry, she was also a dedicated Deaconess and enjoyed teaching Sunday School.

Virginia worked at Cincinnati Milacron as an electrician for more than 30 years. After retiring, she enjoyed working in her flower garden, spending "Nana" time with TJ, and doting on her great-grandson, Myles. Virginia also traveled often to visit loved ones and cherished the close bond she shared with her sisters and daughter.

Virginia and Jesse were married on June 26 and remained devoted to one another for more than 49 years until Jesse was called home to Glory. This loving union was blessed with two children: Jesse Jr., who preceded her in death, and Stacey.

Virginia leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Stacey; one grandson, Thomas (Desiree); one great-grandson, Myles; three bonus grandchildren, Marquez, MarKyla, and Montae; sisters, Margie (George) of Ohio, Enoris (Edward) of Alabama, and Ladonna (Edward) of Alabama; and a host of other relatives and friends.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
